

SMALL TALK

#23

Vol. 5 No. 3

Methodist College Fayetteville, North Carolina

February, 1965

First Constitutional Amendment Attempted

Missionary To Speak In Chapel

A North Carolina attorney who gave up a lucrative law practice and a promising political career to become a Methodist missionary to Africa, will be the guest speaker at CHAPEL ASSEMBLY on WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1965.

He is Attorney Seavy A. Carroll of Lumberton and Fayetteville, North Carolina. Since 1960 Mr. Carroll has been a missionary in Rhodesia (formerly Southern Rhodesia), where The Methodist Church has a considerable concentration of mission activity, including educational, medical and religious work.

Mr. Carroll was commissioned a regular missionary of The Methodist Church at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., in 1959, and a year later he was assigned to the Church's mission station at Mutambara, Rhodesia. He was school principal and manager there for 18 months, then became school superintendent at the Nyadiri mission station.

Before returning to the United States recently on a year's tour, he was director of publicity and promotion for the Church in Rhodesia.

Mr. Carroll is a graduate of Wake Forest College and Wake Forest Law School. He practiced law for 12 years in Fayetteville, N. C., and was Solicitor for the Cumberland County Court from 1948 to 1952. From 1952 to 1956 he was County Judge, and served as State Senator from 1956 to 1960, when he went into missionary service.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS PRESENTS THE CATALINAS

Feb. 12, 1965 8:30-11:30
Dress Informal Couple $2.00
Stag $1.50

STUDENT UNION BUILDING

John Gardner, Jerry Smith, Anna Cail Dixon, and Walter Sherin, officers of the Freshman Class, announced this last week the plans for the annual Valentine Dance. Tickets are on sale and can be purchased from any of the class officers. Tickets may also be obtained from either of the other class presidents. The dance will be held this Friday, February 12, in the Student Union from 8:30 until 12:30.

Prices this year are two dollars per couple and a dollar and a half stag. Dress will be INFORMAL (check Handbook, p. 26). The popular Catalinas will be presented by the class.

VOTE

February 8th

Students assist in helping library move into its new location.

Students Assist In Moving Library To New Locations

On Monday, November 23, 1964, the students of Methodist College helped the library staff move the books and furniture from the classroom building into its new location. The student turnout for this occasion was outstanding.

The librarian, Mr. Robert Mabson, was concerned with the delay in opening which would be caused by having the maintenance crews move the books. In preparation for the move, the library staff had shifted the books in order that the maintenance personnel could move the shelves into the upstairs portion of the new library.

Mr. Mabson had consulted several other libraries concerning the methods which they used in moving, but the situation here was unique in that the shelves had to be moved before the books could be taken over to the new building.

The individual classes were participants in a contest to see which of them could make the most trips.

The JUNIOR CLASS won the contest which added $40.00 to the class treasury. It should be pointed out that the JUNIOR CLASS is the smallest class on campus. The Senior class won the sum of $20.00 for second place.

The library staff expressed its appreciation to the student body for a job well done.

Class presidents John Gardner, Bill Tarr, Larry Barnes, and Sparky Rapley lead book-moving in Library contest.

Senate Approves Measure

On Monday, February 1, 1965, Dave Altman, Student Body President, convened the second Student Government Association meeting of the current year. Along with the second (required) treasury report by Tommy Yow, a proposed revision to the two year old S. G. A. constitution was presented and read to the Student Body. The revision concerns Article VI, section 3 of the present constitution. Clause "a" (as it is) would be replaced in its entirety by the revisions, (a-d), which are being proposed.

Altman explained the constitutional provision wherein the student body must hear and save a copy of the proposed revisions and then act on said revisions within one (1) week thereof.

On Tuesday, February 2, the Senate met and President Altman discussed the above stipulations and noted that the Senate must approve the revisions before the elections on the following Monday, February 8. After a lengthy discussion, the Senate unanimously approved the revision.

The polls will open at twelve o'clock noon on the eighth. The importance of this measure should insure a large turnout.

Fees Increase

The following schedule of increases in charges per semester will be effective with the opening of school in September, 1965.

INCREASE PER SEMESTER FOR DAY STUDENTS

Tuition $25.00;
General Fee 30.00;
Health & Activity Fee . . . 7.50.

INCREASE PER SEMESTER FOR RESIDENT STUDENTS

Tuition $25.00;
General Fee 30.00;
Health & Activity Fee . . . 7.50;
Room Rent 37.50.

V O T E

February 8th

Editorial Comments

Proposed Constitutional Revisions

ARTICLE VI - JUDICIAL

Section 3 (Fowers)

The Judicial Council shall have the power to interpret the constitution and acts of the Senate; to try persons impeached by the Senate; and to try members of the Association for violation of the constitution, the by-laws, acts of the Senate, and rules of the College.

- a. The right of the President of the College or the Deans to act in emergency matters involving suspension shall be recognized. Jurisdiction in all other cases not under the jurisdiction of the Dormitory Councils shall be vested in the Judicial Council.
 1. The dormitory councils shall handle all cases involving infractions of dormitory rules.
 2. The right of the Judicial Council to review and/or reconsider all decisions of the dormitory council shall be recognized.
 3. The Judicial Council should meet within two (2) regular school days after indictment. Failure of Judicial Council to act within specified time automatically refers case to Student-Faculty Judicial Committee. The Chief Justice will notify the Dean of Students or other authority of all decisions within twenty-four (24) hours. Days when school not in session shall not be counted.
 - b. For a conviction in any disciplinary action, a simple majority vote of those members of the Judicial Council who are present shall be necessary. The Chief Justice shall vote only to break a tie.
 - c. There shall be a Student-Faculty Judicial Committee of nine (9) members that shall consist of four (4) faculty members appointed by the President of the College, and the Dean of Students who shall be an ex-officio member and Chairman, and without voting privileges, except to break a tie vote. Four (4) student members will consist of the four (4) Student Government Association Officers. For a conviction in any disciplinary action, a simple majority vote of those members present shall be necessary. Seven (7) members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a Quorum.
 1. The decisions of the Student-Faculty Judicial Committee shall be final unless set aside by the President of the College.
 2. The right of the Student-Faculty Judicial Committee to review and/or reconsider all decisions of the Judicial Council within two (2) school days after notification by the Judicial Council, shall be recognized. Days when school not in session shall not be counted.
 - d. The right of the Student to appeal to the Student-Faculty Committee will be recognized.
- Clauses B-I will stay as they are and become Clauses E-L.

The proposed revisions to the SGA Constitution appear above. These revisions will replace clause which appears below.

- a. Final authority in judicial matters shall be vested in the Judicial Council. However, the right of the defendant to appeal to a faculty committee appointed by the president of the college shall be recognized. In the case of permanent dismissal faculty authority may take precedence. For a conviction in any disciplinary action, a three-fourths (3/4) vote of its membership shall be necessary.

Editorial

The proposed revisions to the constitution were passed out on Monday, February 1, 1965. Every student should have received one and studied it by now. This editorial will attempt to explain the changes and why they are necessary.

The first change occurs in clause "a". This right of the President and the Deans are reserved in every other college. There is nothing the SGA can do to change this power.

The second change is in clause "a", part 3. Before now the Student Life Committee or the Deans had the power to try cases when school was not in session; this section will give that right to courts on which the students are represented.

The third change comes in clause "b". The vote required to convict before these revisions was a 3/4 majority. However, the Judicial Council can try cases with a quorum of 7 members, and it is impossible to get 3/4 of 9. The revision converts the system to that used in the U. S. Supreme court, namely a simple majority is required to convict.

The fourth, and most controversial change, comes in clause "c". This clause establishes a Student-Faculty Judicial Committee of nine members, 4 faculty members and the Dean of Students who will not vote except in the consequence of a tie, and 4 students being the four Student Government Association Officers.

The primary argument to this portion of the revision is that this is giving too much power to the Executive branch of the government. The argument if valid in some respects, while in others it is not. The SGA Officers are the most qualified to vote on cases involving other students because they are elected officials. If they were appointed by the SGA president or any other small group of individuals, the Judicial Council could object on the grounds of lack of an unbiased

(See EDITORIAL, Pg. 4)

Curriculum Requirements Are Changed

--Greensboro, N. C. -- (L. E.)-- Curriculum requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro have received a thorough readjustment.

There are four basic areas of curriculum adjustment. First, those students who have exceptionally strong backgrounds in English and history, as indicated through special departmental examinations will be allowed to waive the generally required English 101-102 and history 101-102 courses.

Second, a humanities requirement of four courses has been added to achieving a bachelor of arts degree. This will include a mandatory requirement that all students take English 211 which covers Chaucer, Shakespeare, and Milton. The second course may be in English 212, English literature; English 252, American literature; or English 202, continental European literature.

The remaining six hours of humanities may be drawn from courses offered in art, dance, classical civilization, drama, English, French, German, Greek, history, home economics, Latin, music, philosophy, physical education, Russian, and Spanish.

No student may meet his humanities requirement by course work in his major field, nor can course work taken to meet the foreign language requirement be applied to fulfilling the humanities requirement. At least three hours credit must come from electives in art, drama, music, dance, or philosophy.

The curriculum change also includes a reworking of the natural science and mathematics requirements. Prior to the changes, the requirement stood at two years' work from among six fields, with the provision that at least one year include biology, physics and chemistry.

These latter three courses were considered as empirically oriented laboratory sciences. Now, in addition to one of these courses still being required, another provision states that work in a quantitative computational science, also found in chemistry and physics, is now mandatory for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

If both of these requirements are met by taking chemistry or physics, the student may take biology, geography (which may not be substituted for a social science requirement if used as a natural science), mathematics, or psychology. If neither chemistry nor physics is taken, the requirement is then fulfilled with biology and mathematics.

Thus, with the extended definition of natural science requirement, a Bachelor of Arts candidate may no longer graduate by taking biology and laboratory geography, or geology or psychology. Also these requirements may not be met by a student taking chemistry and physics.

In the words of Dr. Jordan Kurland, assistant professor of history and chairman of the Faculty Committee on Curriculum, a student must be able to "solve an equation before graduating." Therefore, the student will be oriented to the empirical and analytical techniques now involved in natural sciences.

In accordance with the rising quality of entering freshmen, a third change has occurred with regard to the foreign language requirement. Those students who, upon departmental examination, are shown to have a language proficiency of less than two years' secondary school training, are required to take eighteen hours' work in French, German, Greek,

(See CURRICULUM, Pg. 4)

Staff Positions

OPEN

on

sMALL TALK

During the second semester, sMALL Talk will be working extra hard to publish five more issues. Staff members are needed badly. If you are willing to work, please come to the staff meetings which will be held in Room C-101, every Monday at 4:00 p.m.

Letters To The Editor

It seems to me that persons who are "educated" and who find themselves in a position to educate others should know out-and-out rudeness when it slaps them in the face, and that seeing they would try to stop it.

In deed I have seen attempts to stop it in certain forms, particularly when students have been involved; holding hands and such rude things as that which bring the school a bad name if seen by strangers. Rudeness though is not limited to students, in fact one of the rudest things I have seen on this campus is the ringing of bell during assembly or Chapel. The latest incident of this nature occurred during the music club assembly. The students, I believe, were greatly enjoying the program closing in a piano solo when the player and leisure were blazed by the bell interrupting that enjoyment.

Perhaps though I am wrong in assuming that students count at least in some small way, or that students deserve politeness as others on campus do. If this is the case then the bells should continue to ring in student participation assemblies.

Don't the members of the faculty deserve some respect though? If they do perhaps we could rid ourselves of the bell during faculty participation assemblies so that a prayer, a benediction, or a final thought might not be ruined by a ringing bell.

But then perhaps no one on this campus deserves any degree of respect. If this be the case I make one final plea; when we have outside guests come in our rude society, such as the German Church, could we not at least show them, even if we must be rude to one another, that we are civil to the extent that we know that others are not used to such rudeness and not ring the bell more than once during the performance?

Veritas

— et —

Virtus

Editor	Loche McLean
Copy Editor	Bruce Kasper
Artist	Gary Graham
Business Manager	Ray Usery
News Editor	Larry Barnes
Advertising Manager	Diane Underwood
	Gloria Autry
	Shad Boster
	Jim Davis
	Ran MacLemore
	Kathy Richardson
	Sherry Scott
	Becky Stirling
	Walter Turner
	Gwen Collier
Advisor	Mr. Kenneth Proctor

Summer Jobs Available In Europe

Grand Duchy of Luxembourg -- The American Student Information Service, with headquarters in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, is now accepting applications from U.S. college students who wish to work in Europe next summer. The ASIS can place students in temporary summer work in Great Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Finland, Norway, Luxembourg, Belgium, Holland, Austria, Israel and Liechtenstein.

15,000 OPENINGS
ASIS has 15,000 job openings within categories that include resort hotel work, office work, factory work, hospital work, child care work, ship work, construction work, farm work, sales work, and camp counseling work. Wages range to $400 a month for the highest paying positions in West Germany and the working conditions and hours are exactly the same as those of the Europeans with whom the students work. In most cases room and board are provided free but if not, the student worker lives independently in the city where he is working. In any case living accommodations are prearranged.

ORIENTATION IN EUROPE
Every student placed in a summer job in Europe attends a 5-day orientation period in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg that includes cultural orientation tours to Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg, blackboard sessions, on the scene language practice, and lectures given by European university professors. Although there is usually no foreign language requirement for the jobs, students are given the opportunity to experience native European situations during the orientation period. Blackboard sessions and talks cover such subjects as how to save money while in Europe, low cost transportation, shopping discounts and inexpensive living accommodations. ASIS claims that this do-it-yourself, on the scene method of preparation is the only way to adjust rapidly to the European way of life.

The ASIS, a non-profit organization in its eighth year of operation, also supplies job applicants, at no extra cost, with a complete set of language records of the language of the country in which the applicant will be working, a student pass allowing the bearer student discounts throughout Europe, complete health and accident insurance while in Europe, and a comprehensive information service about living and traveling in Europe.

TRAVEL GRANTS TO $1,000
The ASIS also offers travel grants that greatly reduce the cost of the summer in Europe. These grants can range as high as $1,000 depending upon individual circumstances. Student applicants are also free to make their own travel arrangements to and from Europe. ASIS expects that a great many students participating in the charter flights sponsored by their school will want a summer job in Europe.

The purpose of the ASIS summer-job-in-Europe program is to provide every college student with the opportunity to see Europe, to increase his cultural knowledge through travel and at the same time to earn and save money.

American Student Information Service
22 Ave de la Liberie, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg summer jobs in europe

Armour's Soda Shop

1331 Ramsey

Fountain
Toiletries
School Supplies

Cigarettes
Newspapers
Greeting Cards

McBryde's Opticians

Leon & Alex
Glasses Made & Repaired
Contact Lenses

304 Hay Street
Phone HE 2-5487

Belk Hensdale
DEPARTMENT STORES
"Home of Better Values"

DOWNTOWN May St. thru Franklin St. TALLYWOOD Shopping Center - Eastford Rd.

Bailey's

Service

Lubrication
Road Service

Washing
Wrecker Service

HE 3-4238

Raleigh Road & Country Club Dr.

UNIQUE CLEANERS, INC.

"Let Unique Do It"

Cleaning Laundry Shirts

All Types Sewing

2008 RAMSEY ST.

PHONE - 433-1184

February, 1965. SMALL TALK, Page 3

M & O
Chevrolet Co.

Corsair Sport Coupe

HE 32188
Fayetteville, N. C.

The MONARCHS

Rawlings -- WEAR CLARK
Spalding -- EQUIPMENT
MacGregor --
and other major brands

Clark Sporting Goods

128 MAXWELL ST.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

YOUR FULL - SERVICE
BANK
SAVINGS ACCOUNTS
CHECKING ACCOUNTS
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

"We Invite Student Checking Accounts."

5 CONVENIENT OFFICES
TO SERVE YOU

MAIN OFFICE - 100 HAY ST.

In Downtown Fayetteville
Member F.D.I.C.

EAT SHOP VISIT THE SNACK BAR

In The Student Union Building

- ALL SCHOOL SUPPLIES
Books, Paper, Study Aids,
Pencils, Notebooks
- CIGARETTES
- TOILETRIES
- FOUNTAIN AND GRILLE
Hamburgers, Milkshakes,
Cokes, Cheiving Gum,
Nabs, Candy, Cakes Hot Dogs, EVERYTHING FOR
- MONOGRAMMED ITEMS
Methodist College Sweat Shirts
Hats, Decals, Jackets,
Towels, Weekend Bags
- THE STUDENT AT

THE SNACK BAR

JOHN PARKER, Manager

Die Schoene Muellerin To Be Presented Here

Alan M. Forter, tenor, and Harlan F. Duenow, pianist, will perform Schubert's song cycle, Die Schoene Muellerin, Tuesday evening, February 9, in the student Union at the Methodist College Campus.

The program will begin at 8:00 p. m. and is one of the Concert-Lecture Series sponsored by the college and open to the public. Mr. Forter, instructor of voice and choral music at Methodist College, holds degrees in music from Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, and the University of Illinois, while doing graduate work in voice. He studied with Paul Ulanovsky and Pierre Denize and was active in the opera group. He came to Fayetteville in September of 1963, he has been choir director of the Hay Street Methodist Church Choir and has made many appearances in this area as soloist. This program will be the third recital he has presented under the sponsorship of Methodist College.

Concertgoers most recently heard a sacred recital at St. John's Episcopal Church presented jointly by Mrs. Jean Ishee and Mr. Forter. Last May he was tour soloist in the performance of the "Mozart Requiem" by the College chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra. In the summer he sang the tenor solo part in Schubert's "Mass in G" which was performed on the campus of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, in August. He participated in two of the prize rounds of the Festival of Festivals in Raleigh sponsored by the North Carolina Music Society.

Mr. Forter and Mr. Duenow have made several appearances together since their first program in November, 1963.

Sergeant Harlan F. Duenow, who is stationed with the 440th U. S. Army Band at Fort Bragg, comes from Waterloo, Iowa. He attended the State College of Iowa, where he studied piano with Suzanne Conklin-Diapp.

While in college Sgt. Duenow was opera rehearsal accompanist and accompanist for music students throughout the entire student body. After college he worked as a professional accompanist and voice coach and was the private accompanist of Mr. Charles R. Matheson.

At present, Sgt. Duenow is the rehearsal conductor of the 440th Army Band, Choir-master and organist of the Main Post Chapel at Fort Bragg, and Conductor of the Fort Bragg Chapel Air Force Chapel Chorus.

CURRICULUM

Students with a background of two or three years secondary school training are required to take twelve hours credit in chosen language and those chosen language auditors an equivalent of four years college training must take six hours. Prior to this, all Bachelor of Arts candidates have been required to take twelve hours of language, regardless of their background.

The fourth area of change is shown in requirements set for earning a Bachelor of Arts in elementary education. The previous set of those substantial readjustments involved in that department was due to the higher standards set for the Bachelor of Arts degree requirements and revised professional standards demanded by the North Carolina Board of Education.

Dr. Kurland terms the course work now required an elementary education major as one of the "most challenging" on campus. The elementary education major will meet the science requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree by taking a year of biology and a year of mathematics.

Haverford College Tackles Speaker Controversy

Haverford, Pa. (U. P.)—Because of the current widespread interest in the matter of student freedom and controversial issues, Dean of Students James W. Lyons reports a policy recently adopted by the Board of Managers and Administration of Haverford College. The policy is quoted in full below:

Controversial Subjects: Haverford College holds that open-minded and free inquiry is essential to a student's educational development. Thus, the College recognizes the right of all students to engage in discussion, to exchange thought and opinion, and to speak or write freely on any subject.

jeet.

To be complete, this freedom to learn must include the right of inquiry both in and out of the classroom and must be free from any arbitrary rules or actions that would deny students the freedom to make their own choice regarding controversial issues.

Further, the College endeavors to develop in its students the realization that as members of a free society they have not only the right but also the obligation to inform themselves about various problems and issues, and are free to formulate and express their positions on these issues.

Finally, the College reaffirms the freedom of assembly as an essential part of the process of discussion, inquiry and advocacy. Students, therefore, have the right to found new, or to join existing organizations, on or off campus, which advocate and engage in lawful actions to implement their announced goals.

Student actions such as those here involved do not imply approval, disapproval, or sponsorship by the College or its student body; neither do such actions in any way absolve a student from his academic responsibilities. Similarly, students are expected to make clear that they are speaking or acting as individuals and not for the College or its student body.

The freedom to learn, to inquire, to speak, to organize and to act with conviction within the bounds of law, are held by Haverford College to be a cornerstone of education in a free society.

College Groups Are Invited To Perform At World's Fair

Hailed as the "Star of the Show" at the World's Fair, the New York State Exhibit, which this year featured over 67,900 performers from over 1,800 New York non-professional community groups, is inviting college organizations throughout the United States to appear in the Exhibit's huge "Tent of Tomorrow" during the 1965 season of the Fair (April 21st to October 17th, 1965).

College bands, orchestras, choirs, glee clubs, quartets, drum and bugle corps, drill teams, gymnastic teams, couples, modern dance groups and virtually all types of college group performances are invited to perform as part of the Special Events program in the mammoth "Tent of Tomorrow". Over 60,000 people witness performances each day.

College organizations wishing to perform are asked to contact the Director of Special Events, New York State Commission on the World's Fair, 1270 Avenue of the Americas (Room 304), New York, New York 10020.

The New York State Exhibit also includes three observation towers -- one of which at 226 feet is the highest point at the Fair. Over 12,000 visitors per day ascend to its observation platform in high speed capsule elevators rising on the outside of the column.

The final component is the Theaterama, where a 12-14 minute, 360 degree motion picture on New York State as a place to work, live, study and play is shown.

V O T E

February 8th

Life's a picnic when you're refreshed.
Coca-Cola, with its cold crisp taste,
is always just right,
never too sweet . . . refreshes best.

things go better with
Coke

Bottled under the authority of The Coca-Cola Company by: BOTTLER'S NAME HERE.

EDITORIAL

or impartial vote. For example, if a member of the Judicial Council was on the higher court, he would already have heard the case and performed his opinion. The paper's view is that the elected officers of the SGA should serve on this committee.

Quick Clean Center

1. Closest Laundromat to College
2. Juice Box, Snack Bar, Hair Dryers
3. Comfortable Lounge

2911 Ramsey St. 4329705

Lafayette

Memorial Park

Best Wishes

LEON SUGAR'S men's shop

DOWNTOWN

131 Hay St.

Phone 432-2477

FOR HAPPY HEATING

Ask Our Watch Dog Service

Esso

Dial HE 3-3106

D. K. Taylor Oil Company

202 Cumberland St.

Fayetteville, N. C.

TOMMY YOW

Tommy Yow was born in Raleigh in July, 1943. He grew up in Raleigh and attended Needham Broughton High School through his sophomore year. After the family moved to Rockingham he attended Rockingham High School, graduating in 1962. At Rockingham High School he was vice president of the band, a Student Council representative, president of the Jazz Club, manager of the basketball team, and a member of the track team.

Tommy entered Methodist College in the fall of 1962. In his freshman year he served as president of his class and as a member of the Constitutional Committee that wrote the SGA Constitution into its final form. As a sophomore Tommy was again elected president of his class, which automatically made him a member of the SGA Judicial Council. When the Chief Justice of the Judicial Council resigned later in the year, Tommy was elected to this position.

During this past year Tommy has been most active in the work of the Student Government Association. He has served as treasurer of the SGA, as a member of the Constitutional Revisions Committee and the Elections Committee, and he was chairman of the Methodist College delegation to the State Student Legislature in February, 1965. He has served as chairman of the following SGA committees: Freshman Orientation Committee, Class Dues Campaign Committee, Finance Committee, and Activity Cards Committee. He plays intramurals (soccer and volleyball) and is a member of the YDC and the MSM.

Tommy's father is an engineer on the Seaboard Railway and his mother is a housewife. He has two brothers; Charlie, a freshman at Methodist College, and Chris, who is in the third grade. The Yows attend the First Methodist Church in Rockingham. For the past three summers, Tommy has worked as a surveyor for the North Carolina State Highway Commission.

Tommy has listed the following as his platform for 1965-66:

1. Eight committees will be set up to handle various matters presently handled by the Executive Council.

"This committee system would give more people a chance to play an active part in their student (See YOW, Pg. 3)

Election Procedures

1. Posting of eligible candidate by S.G.A. secretary. By April 1, 1965
2. Nominations for S.G.A. and class officers. April 5, 1965 in assembly
3. Primary for S.G.A. and class officers. April 9, 1965
4. General Election for S.G.A. and class officers. April 14, 1965
5. Runoffs if necessary. April 15, 1965
6. Acceptance Speech. April 26, 1965

VOTE

April 14

RON MASON

Republican Club of Methodist College. He also wrote the constitution of this organization and served as its first chairman. He is presently serving on the Executive Committee and is program chairman.

Ron's activities during 1964 included the following:

1. In January he served as the delegate representing Cumberland County to the Seventh Congressional District Convention.

2. In February Ron served as the delegate representing Methodist College to the State Young Republican Club Convention.

3. In March he served as the delegate representing Cumberland County to the State (Senior) Republican Convention.

4. In October he represented Methodist College at the North Carolina College Federation of Young Republicans.

Ron says, "The prevailing attitude among the students is that Methodist College is merely an extension of Fayetteville High;

(See MASON, Pg. 3)

Spring Concert To Be Presented By College Chorus

The Methodist College Chorus, under the direction of Alan M. Porter, will present its Spring Concert at 8:00 o'clock p. m., April 13 in the Student Union at the college.

The chorus is made up of forty-four students from North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, and Maryland.

The chorus will appear with the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra again this year when they combine to present the "Gloria" by Antonio Vivaldi and the "Te Deum" by Zoltan Kodaly.

The program will consist of both secular and sacred music. The secular section presented will be: "Modern Music" by William Billings; "He's Gone Away" which is an American Folk Song (Teresa Zahran, soprano soloist) following is "I Gave My Love A Fretty Little Ring" by Katherine K. Davis. Also presented will be "An Erie-kay Love Lull" which is arranged by Hugh S. Robertson; "Younger than Springtime" by Richard Rodgers; and "Brother Will, Brother John" conclude the secular part of the program.

Included in the program will be selections by the Methodist College Singing Ensemble, a small group of representative voices from the choir. These selections will include: "O Lord, Thou Hast Formed My Every Part" by Johann Sebastian Bach; "To Our Redeemer's Methodist College Chorus preparing Spring Concert.

Glorious Name, by Christopher Tyndal; "Me a Song" by David Verch; and "I Know De Lord's Laid His Hands on Me", by Woodgate. Carol Stuart is the contralto soloist in this group.

The sacred half of the program will be presented in several different styles. Opening will be "O Sing Unto The Lord" by Hans Leo Hassler; "O Bone Jeshu" by Loyset Compere; and "Lift Up Your Heads" by Melchior Vulpius. "Whence Cometh Wisdom" by Dean Clark-(Mr. Clark is a former Fayetteville resident. The text herein is from the 28th chapter of Job.) Tony Appenzeller, tenor soloist, will be presented in a traditional southern folk hymn, "Wondrous Love" arranged by Paul Christiansen, "Deep River", and "Dig My Grave" two Negro spirituals will also be presented. The finale from the motet "Sing Ye To The Lord" ("All Breathing Life, Sing and Praise Ye The Lord"), by Johann Sebastian Bach. All are cordially invited to the concert.

Connie Thomas, Peggy Gardner, and Randy Jube rehearse EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL

Drama Club To Present Play, May 6, 7

The Dramatics Club, Green & Gold Masque Keys, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Miriam Urey is presenting "Everybody Loves Opal" by John Patrick. It will be presented on May 6, 7 and at eight p. m. in the Student Union.

Opal Kronkie is an old reclus whose home resembles a junk heap. She has welcomed into her home, three schoolfriends who take advantage of her sweet, kind, outgoing nature. She appears to be very naive; but, is she really?

Opal is played by Connie Thomas, a Freshman from Union, S. C. Connie has worked with High School plays and in Church dramas.

The three schoolfriends are, in order of appearance, Gloria Gu-lock (Peggy Gardner), Professor Bradford Winter (John Leeger), and Solomon Bozo (Randy Jube). Support is given by Jonathan Cole who portrays an insurance doctor. Opal's favorite policeman is characterized by Johnny Hinson.

Feggy, a sophomore from Fayetteville, was student director of the senior play in High School. She also appeared in "America Speaks" presented by the Masque Keys last year. John Leeger, a sophomore from Gary, Indiana, appeared in several High School productions. Randy Jube, a Freshman from Fayetteville, has been in plays since the first grade. He appeared in "Auntie Mame" at the Fort Bragg Playhouse. Jonathan Cole, a Freshman from Freehold, N. J., worked in dramas (See DRAMA, Pg. 3)

Editorial Comments

"Where the press is free, and every man able to read, all is safe," Thomas Jefferson

April is here and that means that it's political time again at M. C. This year the campaign is the most intense ever. All candidates are working hard and they are to be congratulated for this. We feel that for the interest of our readers we should examine our past two SGA presidents and their campaign promises and how well they have fulfilled these obligations while in office.

Julian Jessup was quoted in the SMALL TALK edition of April 1963 as stated what he hoped to accomplish if elected SGA president. He advocated more student sponsored and more student participation in chapel and assembly programs. This would add variety and interest to the assemblies. I am also formulating a plan to sell yearly admission cards to perhaps three important dances, sponsored by the SGA.

The work that was begun by Julian carried over into the present assembly and chapel program that we have today. Although Julian was unable to carry out his program of the "admission cards," the Altman administration has formulated the SGA activity cards with not three but four dances sponsored by the SGA.

The greatest achievement of the Jessup administration was that the student government became an active and forceful group on campus. David Altman's platform consisted of (1) more activities for the entire student body; (2) a study of the possibility of joining a national student organization; and (3) getting some money into the SGA treasury. The student government this year has sponsored four dances open to the entire student body with bands of high caliber performing.

The senate of the student government recently voted to join the Associated Student Governments of the United States of America. This is the result of a year long study.

When the Altman administration came into office our SGA treasury was broke. At the present time we have over $300.00. UNDER this administration we have revised our constitution. This revision plainly gives more power to the SGA.

Because of the good relations that exist between the SGA and administration our tennis courts are now open on Sunday. The Student Union is open all day Saturday and Sunday night, the athletic fields are to be open on Sunday afternoon and a faculty committee has recommended that the soft drink and cigarette machines be installed in the classroom building.

It is our hope that our SGA's in the future will do as well as those in the past. We urge all M. C. students to study the platform of each candidate and then vote for the candidate that in his opinion will make the best SGA president.

Scientific Formula For History: MC + SC → MS + C₂

On March 31, 1961, a group of interested students and faculty met for the purpose of organizing the Methodist College Science Club. Among the founding members were Donald Hillburn, Paul Gorski, Bob Orcutt, Jerry Wood and Harold Teague. The faculty sponsors were Dr. Ott, Mrs. Longest, Mrs. Tolol, and Mr. Snyder.

The members approved and adopted a constitution which stated that "the establishing of this club will be for the purpose of stimulating interest in the various scientific and mathematical fields related to this institution of higher education." Members pledged to maintain good academic standing and to actively participate in the club programs. They have done this and will continue to do so.

Golf And

Tennis Rosters

GOLF
George Goforth - Captain; Dick Glaver, George Parker, Bill Hart, Steve Goforth, Richard Evans, Roger Reimer, Lee Little, David Brown, Coach E. Schwarz.

TENNIS
Wayne Altmanson, Don Larson, Jerry Hucklebee, Ian MacGregor, John Hamby - Captain, Les Newell, Sparky Vajehoe, Gene Bruce, Coach G. Clayton.

A HAPPY EASTER TO ALL!

Meeting each first and third Friday of the month in the Science Building (S-209) individual members of the club have presented lectures and demonstrations which range from, The Processing of Petroleum, by Jerry Wood, a discussion of "Spokes" by Johnny Parker, a lecture on Radiation Detection by Dr. Ott, a discussion of X-ray by David Chancer, a discussion of Embryology by Henry Walker and Vitrology was discussed by John Hamilton. Other interesting lectures presented by student members include, The Theory of Kinetic Gases, The Marvels of Nature, Methods of Measuring Molecular Volume of Liquids, Physical Therapy, Molecular Weight, Colloids, Monoclonism, The Liver Functions and Diseases, Isomerism, Electrolytes Biochemistry, Surface Active Agents, Whiplash Injuries, Surface Tension, and Gasoline Performance Additives.

Guest speakers include Andrews, Chemistry; Set, J. H. Hart; Fayetteville College Dept. A. C. State. The Methodist College Science Club is a member of C. A. N. C. A. S. (Collegiate Academy of the North Carolina Academy of Science) and our members have participated in the programs and activities of that organization. The Club maintains a display in the Science Building and participates in the chapel programs as other clubs at Methodist College, However, all is not business as the club also participates in fish fries and picnics and other somewhat less scientific activities. All science majors who are in good academic standing are invited to join our little group. Any instructor in the fields of mathematics, biology, chemistry or physics, will be glad to give

Junior Class To Present May Dance

The activities committee of the class of 1965, under the direction of vice-president Chuck Brisnolls, have been working over a month planning this year's May Dance.

The dance will be strictly formal. Entertainment will be supplied by The Music Makers band.

It is the desire of the class that every one will be able to attend this annual dance. In recognition of the financial status of most college students, the class has arranged to order turkeys through Heik-Hensdale for $6.50. Arrangements were also made for a reduced rate for flowers with a local florist. The admission price was also reduced to $2.00 per couple. The dance will begin at 8 and last until 12.

Senate Actions As Viewed By Reporter

Current Senate actions as viewed by this reporter are:

1. The possible incorporation of the local set with a national motion picture organization known as the Association of Student Governments of the United States of America. This proposal passed unanimously as it was felt that it would benefit a small college such as M. C.

2. At last Hardee, a Soph. Senator, presented a bill opposing the ringing of the 2200 Student Union bell on assembly days. After much negative debate the bill passed (with an attached clause to the effect that a switch, which would control the bell, should be installed in the Union.)

3. Sen. Hardee also introduced (See SENATE, Page 4)

From The Tower

Seems as if the Senate has concerned itself with important things! They wish to have the SGA a member of an organization called: Association of Student Government of the United States of America (A. S. of U. S. A.). This is a long title, . . .

Beware "Harry Hi-School!" There is a time and a place for everything . . . the MC library is not a nursery.

Spring is here and birds are singing. But I have fear, It's political binging.

The Spanish Club wishes to send two students to Mexico this summer. The trip will certainly "span"-ize the students, I think.

The most "qualified" candidate for May Queen will be "elected" soon.

Ode to Cafeteria Statute Makers: The motive was valid but the method was terrible. Demonstrations of today are found in the streets. Trade your food for thought.

Chapel - Assembly Programs have improved. However, "Appreciation Day" was not appreciated. It is quite possible that the rain on that dreadful day dampened many spirits.

Federal Aid has been accepted— one wonders what stipulations will follow!

We are really going to receive a "free" cup of the college annual next year?

We remember way back when there was no SGA.

A man's laughter denotes his superiority. -- L. S. W.

New Year's Resolutions were made January 1. Next Year's promises will be made this month. We wish better luck for the promises.

We salute the Chorus for its devoted efforts of representing and supporting the college. Student and faculty appreciation could be expressed by attending the Annual Spring Concert on April 13.

Now is the time for all good voters to come to the aid of their government: Are you a thinking man's filter, a smoking man's taste, or would you rather fight than switch?!

One wonders if textbooks will be re-purchased at the semester's end or are we on the "buy now, keep forever" plan?

He who speaks loudly to be heard says nothing.

In days to come "Hill race is won. A hand extend To prove a friend. And on you night! I down to play I down to fight: "Are we of noble youth, Aware of bias truth?"

One wonders what conflicts arise if a student is deemed Student Union Hostess. Maybe the root of the trouble could be traced to a certain clique.

We wonder if drink machines would help during the hot days ahead. Maybe Kool-Aid is the answer.

--Ray Usery

DEPT.	STUDENT	STUDENT	STUDENT	STUDENT
Commerce 1	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 2	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 3	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 4	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 5	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 6	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 7	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 8	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 9	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 10	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 11	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 12	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 13	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 14	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 15	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 16	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 17	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 18	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 19	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 20	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 21	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 22	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 23	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 24	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 25	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 26	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 27	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 28	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 29	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 30	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 31	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 32	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 33	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 34	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 35	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 36	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 37	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 38	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 39	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 40	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 41	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 42	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 43	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 44	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 45	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 46	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 47	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 48	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 49	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 50	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 51	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 52	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 53	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 54	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 55	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 56	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 57	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 58	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 59	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 60	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 61	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 62	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 63	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 64	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 65	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 66	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 67	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 68	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 69	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 70	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 71	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 72	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 73	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 74	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 75	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 76	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 77	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 78	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 79	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 80	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 81	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 82	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 83	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 84	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 85	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 86	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 87	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 88	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 89	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 90	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 91	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 92	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 93	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 94	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 95	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 96	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 97	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 98	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 99	1000	1000	1000	1000
Commerce 100	1000	1000	1000	1000

SMALL TALK

Methodist College Fayetteville, North Carolina

Veritas et Virtus

EditorLoche McLean
 News EditorLarry Barnes
 Sports EditorRay Usery
 Business ManagerDiane Underwood
 Advertising ManagerPeter Petrousis
 Circulation ManagerRichard Austr
 StaffGloria Autry
 William Billings
 Fran MacEmore
 Kathy Richardson
 Sherry Scott
 Walter Turner
 Gwen Collier

AdvisorMr. Kenneth Proctor

You To Run

government. It would also tend to decentralize the authority of the executive council."

2. Formation of an inter-class council to co-ordinate class projects.

3. Formation of an inter-club council to co-ordinate the work of the clubs.

"The inter-class and inter-club councils will significantly strengthen our classes and our clubs. I believe that our SGA cannot really be strong without our classes and clubs are strong."

4. Continuing SGA Activity Cards.

5. Will push for an Alumni Association.

"An Alumni Association is badly needed at M. C. I. I will work as hard as I know how to get one organized by the time the class of 1966 graduates."

6. Broadening the channels of communication between students and the administration.

7. A recommendation that the faculty re-examine the cut system.

8. An extensive investigation of the possibility of an honor system.

"An honor system is a very important thing that involves more than meets the eye. It can be a great thing if used correctly and a horrible thing if not effective. I want the entire student body to decide whether or not they want one at MC."

9. Strengthening of present campus clubs and encouragement of additional clubs.

10. Continuance of Student Assembly Committee.

11. Encouragement of the organization of an annual symposium for the college.

12. A recommendation that students be represented on the Concert-Lecture Series Committee.

"I believe very sincerely that since it is the students' money that is paying for this program the students should have some voice in determining who comes to our campus in this program. This is only fair."

13. A study of the possibility of upper class privileges.

"My program recognizes reciprocal student-faculty responsibility. This I feel will implement the cut system, the concert-lecture series program and the chapel committee. My program places more responsibility in the hands of all the students. I know that our student body is capable of handling these responsibilities."

'Miss Congeniality'

BEVERLY PARKS

Five Methodist College co-eds represented the school in the Miss Fayetteville pageant held March 13th. Miss Vicki Van Dusen was chosen first runner-up in the contest. A local girl, Patricia May Yarbrough was crowned "Miss Fayetteville".

Beverly Parks, sophomore from New Castle, Delaware, was picked "Miss Congeniality."

Other M. C. representatives from Methodist College were Martha Henry, from Charlotte, and Barbara Plucker from Morris-town, New Jersey.

Mason To Run

there is a lack of college atmosphere. There has been very little done to establish this college feeling. It is my belief that the Student Government Association is intended to represent the student body to the faculty, to serve as spokesman to the administration rather than for the administration.

"There has been no visible attempts made to unite the various factions into a functioning body. Rather than acting to incorporate and represent the different attitudes of the various students, there has only been demonstrated a desire to further certain select interests. I don't believe there should be factions; there are only students."

In outlining his program, Ron said, "The students who attend Methodist College are adults. We should not be treated as boys and girls, but as men and women."

But first we must demonstrate that we are capable of self government, and that we have the integrity to govern ourselves. I would like to see:

1. Steps begun toward an honor system.

2. The implementing of those codes we now have, for example the campus code.

3. Upper classmen with more privileges, especially an increase in the cut system, perhaps beginning on a ratio basis, aimed at the eventual abolishment of the cut system.

If my campaign is successful I would initiate steps in this direction. Summing up his thoughts, Ron said, "The president of the SGA in the official spokesman for the student body, he should be someone who is willing to represent the students at all times, not only when it is convenient."

Drama Club

in his High School. Johnny Hinson, also a Freshman, had leading roles in High School productions. Johnny is from Rockingham, N. C.

Officers of the club are: Dick Meisner, president; Pat Lowery, vice-president; Peggy Gardner, secretary; and Connie Thomas, treasurer.

M & O CHEVROLET CO.

HE 32188

Fayetteville, N.C.

Chevy II 4-Door 6-Passenger Station Wagon in Danube Blue

YOUR FULL - SERVICE BANK

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS
CHECKING ACCOUNTS
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

"We Invite

Student Checking Accounts."

5 CONVENIENT OFFICES
TO SERVE YOU

MAIN OFFICE - 100 HAY ST.

In Downtown Fayetteville
Member F.D.I.C.

Quick Clean Center

1. Closest Laundromat to College
2. Juke Box, Snack Bar, Hair Dryers
3. Comfortable Lounge

2911 Ramsey St. 4329705

EAT SHOP VISIT THE STUDENT STORE

in the Student Union Building

NEW ITEMS

Mugs (Various Sizes)
Strip Tees

ALL SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Books, Paper, Study Aids,
Pencils, Notebooks

FOUNTAIN AND GRILLE

Hamburgers, Milkshakes, Cakes,
Chewing Gum, Nuts, Candy, Cakes, Hot Dogs

MONOGRAMMED ITEMS

Methodist College Sweat Shirts,
Hats, Derrals, Jackets, Towels
Weekend Bags

Everything For The Students
JOHN PARKER, Manager

Lafayette

Memorial Park

Best Wishes

Refreshment anyone?
Game goes better refreshed.
Coca-Cola! With its lively lift, big bold taste, never too sweet... refreshes best.

things go
better with
Coke

Bottled under the authority of The Coca-Cola Company
by Fayetteville Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

Senate

a bill concerning the "re-opening of the library during assembly programs." Debate was not necessary as this was reorganized as a want and need of the campus.

4. Sen. Elizabeth Lipscomb asked and received unanimously a donation of twenty-five dollars on behalf of the Spanish Club. This money will be used toward financing a trip and school tuition in Mexico for two students this summer.

7. Senator Dick Glave introduced a rather startling bill emphasizing the best interests of MC. His presentation asked for the removal of the position of Student Union hostess and for the position to be capitulated by a ($75 per hour) and student worker. The bill meets no opposition.

8. The Junior Class sponsored a resolution to amend present student election procedure. Senator Galt Harrison, who introduced the change, explained that conflict was inevitable due to the closeness of Easter Vacation with election time. She contended that elections should be completed before the said vacation. The bill was passed.

9. Senator Harrison also introduced and successfully had a bill passed to provide for a second semester popular election of senators, by their respective classes, if the original senators are removed from office.

10. Freshman Senator Mike Shay proposed to restrict students from college functions if they are in arrears with their class obligations. The bill was placed into the hands of a committee after hitting an arpeggio of negative response.

11. Senator Jerry Marcus introduced a rather lengthy bill stating that in order to guarantee equal representation of the four classes (Jr., Soph., Jr., Sr.) in the Senate of the SGA of Methodist College that the senators of the Senior Class, elected in April of their rising senior year, shall hold their respective offices from the time of election until the June of their normal class graduation.

12. Freshman Senator Mike Shay presented a resolution to the effect that students be permitted to park in the Student Union area when on business in said area. It was forced into committee.

13. Senator Gene Rapelye looked toward the future in a provision for student government in the two new dormitories. Cases that might arise, will be handled separately in the dormitory in which it occurs by its own Dormitory Council. A body will be established composed of the president of each of the four respective halls. This body will meet to consider and/or enact legislation regarding harmony of dormitory life.

--Ray Ussey

Turner Accepted By Internship Program

The State of North Carolina will conduct a Summer Internship Program in State Government in 1966. Twenty-five North Carolina college students will be selected to perform responsible duties in a state department or agency. Students will also participate in a one-week orientation program on North Carolina state government and administration and attend two evening seminars each week on North Carolina's economic, governmental, and related problems. State officials, civic leaders, and faculty members will lecture and participate in the seminars.

Walter Turner, Methodist College senior, has been accepted by the Summer Internship Program for 1966 summer employment.

New Library Work Program

A new program initiated by the Federal Government has taken the form of practical application at Methodist College.

The program is in the form of self-help work whereby students needing employment can be employed by the school in the various departments. The library is one department taking advantage of this new program.

Heretofore the school has hired many students and paid the established seventy-five cents per hour wage. However, the school funds are limited thus making additional student work impossible. The new program passed by the Congress this year pays ninety per cent of this wage and the school pays the remaining ten.

Students wishing to take advantage of this program must show a need and work fifteen hours per week in the library upon employment.

This program will not only serve the students working but also aid the library in catching up on shelving, filing, and cataloging. Many needed books on hand are not available because the past library staff has been tied up with the practical operation of the library.

Our "Esteemed" Faculty

LEON SUGAR'S men's shop

DOWNTOWN

131 Hay St.

Phone 432-2477

McBryde's Opticians

Leon & Alex
Glasses Made & Repaired
Contact Lenses

304 Hay Street
Phone HE 2-5487

Belk-Hensdale

DEPARTMENT STORES
"Home of Better Values"

DOWNTOWN
Hay St. Hwy to Franklin St.

TALLYWOOD
Shopping Center - Eastford Rd.

Travel Itinerary Tennis And Golf

Wed., March 24 - Rocky Mount, N. C. (tennis)
Thurs. March 25 - Rocky Mount, N. C. (golf)

Fri. April 2 - Charleston, S. C.
Tues. April 6 - Pembroke, N. C.
Mon. April 12 - Laurinburg, N. C.
Fri. April 23 - Charlotte, N. C.
April 29-30 - Charleston, S. C. (golf)

April 30-May 1 - Laurinburg, N. C. (tennis)
Fri. May 7 - Lynchburg, Va.
May 10 - Bales Creek, N. C.

Schedule

CONCERT LECTURE SERIES

April 13 - Concert--Methodist College Chorus--Student Union 8:00 p.m.

April 27 - Concert--Chamber Music Program to be presented by the Methodist College Music Department Faculty and guest players--Student Union 8:00 p.m.

May 15 - Concert--an oratorio to be presented jointly by the Methodist College Chorus and the Fayetteville symphony orchestra--Student Union 8:00 p.m.

FOR HAPPY HEATING
Ask About Our Watch Dog Service

Esso

Dial HE 3-3106

D. K. Taylor Oil Company

202 Cumberland St.

Fayetteville, N. C.

Bailey's

Service

Lubrication
Road Service

Washing
Wrecker Service

HE 3-4238

Raleigh Road & Country Club Dr.

Armour's Soda Shop

1331 Ramsey

Fountain
Toiletries
School Supplies

Cigarettes
Newspapers
Greeting Cards

The M
O N
A
R
C
H
S

Rawlings -- WEAR CLARK
Spalding -- EQUIPMENT
MacGregor --
and other major brands

Clark Sporting Goods

128 MAXWELL ST.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

UNIQUE CLEANERS, INC.

"Let Unique Do It"

Cleaning Laundry Shirts

All Types Sewing

2008 RAMSEY ST.

PHONE - 433-1184

M.C.'s Harmon Makes D.I.A.C. All-Conference

Carson Harmon, a 6'9" sophomore forward from Durham, averaged 17 plus points per game in basketball this year to lead the Monarchs to a 4-6 season and a tie for fourth place in the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, one rank higher than our standing last year. The efforts of this nineteen-year-old science major have led him to his second year as a member of the All-Conference team, a squad of five players selected from thirty outstanding players in the conference by the coaches--no coach being allowed to vote for a player on his own team. Harmon, who came to Methodist College with no high school basketball experience, lettered in both basketball and cross country last year and was selected Most Valuable Player by the Monarch cager-squad for this season.

Sharing the top conference roster with Harmon are Hilder, Charleston, Gambell, Charleston, Jacobs, Charlotte, Brockwell, St. Andrews; Blackwell, Richburg, Don Parsons, a monarch guard, received All-Conference honorable mention for his 14-point average season. Special congratulations should go to two J. V. players, Honeycutt and Murray, for their contributions to the team in the positions vacated by the last academic session.

CARSON HARMON

Library Exhibits Scheduled

Methodist College students have been pleased to find that the library contains items other than books. The beauty of the interior has been enhanced by special displays which have appeared in the mezzanine area and along the south wall of the main floor.

Past displays have included a "Freedom Shrine" exhibit which was given to the College for permanent use by the Fayetteville Exchange Club. An art show entitled "Beginnings" was prepared by Mrs. Elizabeth Garbilly's art students for two weeks in February.

The "Freedom Shrine" included copies of such documents as the Constitution, Bill of Rights, Monroe Doctrine, and the Instruments of Surrender by Germany and Japan in World War II.

The art show displayed the creative works of M. C. students with such objects d'art as paper mache animals, woven wall hangings, collages, modernistic sculpture, and paintings.

Currently, a gallery of photographs taken by Dick Johnson of Fayetteville, N. C. is on display. The pictures were taken in the

See EXHIBITS, page 2

Representatives To Student Legislature

Walter Turner, Ted Voorhees, and Tommy Yow were the official representatives from the Student Government Association at Methodist College to the State Student Legislature which was held in Raleigh.

Yow, who is from Rockingham, is treasurer of the SGA; Voorhees, from Morehead City, is treasurer of the Junior class; and Turner, from Kure Beach, is a senator from the senior class to the SGA. Turner is also Chairman of the North Carolina Federation of College Young Democrats.

These three Methodist College students along with students from the other colleges and universities of North Carolina participated in the various aspects of the Student Legislature which began Thursday afternoon, February 18, and continued through 5:00 on Saturday, February 20.

The State Legislature is patterned after the General Assembly of North Carolina. The delegates were divided into the House of Representatives and the Senate; Yow and Voorhees in the House, and Turner in the Senate. They conducted legislative sessions in which bills were presented and acted upon. The entire day of Fri-

See LEGISLATORS, page 2

Dean's List

Donna Aldridge; Jean Barkley; Doris Beard; Nancy Best; Larry Borteaux; William Bruden; Paul Brill; Susan Durhage; Anne Butler; Eugene Coats; Judith Coble.

Gwen Collier; Michael Culpepper; Jerry Daughtry; Elizabeth Davey; James Davies; Donna Davis; Mary Davis; Lawrence Davidson; Linda Dept.

James Dordill; Claudia Dudley; Jean Fort; Sarah Freeman; Grover French; Rebecca Graham; Henry Grant; Ronald Greenery; Ella Rose Hilly; Amelia Harper; David Herring; Roger Hoggood; Jean Hutchinson; John Leeger; James Link; Cabell Luke; Mary McBryde; Martha McRae.

Jane McKinney; Ann McKnight; Richard McPeters; Wade Murr; Donald Parsons; Cynthia Pepper; Kermit Pope; Orin Powell; James Register; David Robertson; Brenda Rosser.

Doris Ruinick; Madeleine Schoenborn; John Setaro; Michael Shay; Brenda Shearon; Judith Siege; Katherine Smith; Rebecca Starling; Tarmo Tanmaa; Raymond Trousdale.

Franklin Tunstall; Walter Vick; Edwin Voorhees; Roberta West; Holly Williams; Wayne Williamson; James Yearby; Antonia Young; Patricia Zahran.

Graduates Anne Rothgeb In Concert

The following students completed requirements for graduation during fall semester: William Garrett Jones, Mary Lynn McIryde, Jane McKinney, David Kermit Norris. Diplomas will be awarded in June.

Anne Rothgeb, a soprano who has sung in concert and opera in the United States, Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, France and Italy, as well as the Near and Far East, appeared in recital at Methodist College on March 2. Her visit here was made under the auspices of the Arts Program, Association of American Colleges, and was the eighth in the concert-lecture series at the college.

Miss Rothgeb, a winner of the Eleanor Steber Award, is a native of Raleigh and a graduate of the Woman's College, University of North Carolina with a B. A. degree, and of the New England Conservatory with a Masters in Music. She also attended the Academy of Music in Vienna.

While in Massachusetts, Miss Rothgeb performed with the Boston Lyric Theatre, and sang numerous concerts in the New England area. For two summers she performed in the Opera Theatre of the Berkshire Music Festival under the direction of Boris Goldovsky.

In 1957 Miss Rothgeb was granted a Fulbright scholarship for study in Vienna, and a year later received a grant from the Beebe Foundation. She made a concert tour of Austria under the sponsorship of the America House. In the summer of 1960 she was soprano soloist in the Creative Arts Festival in Boulder, Colorado, and

See ANNE ROTHGEB, page 4

DICK GLAVE

MICHAEL SHAY

Senators Elected

The semester change brought a preview of the upcoming April elections. Positions open included a senior and freshman senator, a junior treasurer, and a freshman vice-president.

Article V, Section 4 of the SGA constitution stipulates that after the second semester begins the Senate will fill the election of any vacancies in its assembly. Other class positions are returned to the respective classes for elections.

After a week of heated campaigning and an adjourned session of the Senate, Dick Glave and Michael Shay were chosen as senators.

The junior class elected Ted Voorhees as treasurer. Vocals was unopposed in this contest. The freshman class elected Donna Davis, a Raleigh freshman. Donna is the first female class treasurer elected at M. C.

S.G.A. Budget

Entertainment - Bands (4 activity card dances) - $1025.00; Publicity - $50.00; Total $1075.00. United States National Student Association - Membership fee (annually) - $33.00; Regional fee - $5.00; Total $38.00.

State Student Legislature - Affiliation fee - $25.00; Delegate fee (2 delegates) - $43.00; Total $68.00.

Intercollegiate Press Bulletin - Subscription (annually) - $33.00; Total $33.00.

Office Expense - Printing - $27.00; Stamps - $50.00; Miscellaneous - $5.00; Total $82.00. Cheerleaders - Transportation to Ball Games - $30.00; Total $30.00.

Activity Cards - Printing - $15.00; Total $15.00.

Equipment - Typewriter for S. G. A. Office - $155.00; Total $165.00.

See BUDGET, page 2

This Week

Methodist Board of Education, North Carolina Conference interviews for camp counselors for Camp Chestnut Ridge (Eland, N. C.), Camp Don Lee (Aronphoe, N. C.), Camp Rockfish (Parkton, N. C.) Applications available from Mrs. Duncum. Interviews will be held in C-231 or C292, Duncum for an appointment.

Editorial Comments

Reader's Theatre

A very interesting Reader's Theatre presentation was given by the Green and Gold Masque-Keys in assembly, February 6, 1965. This student-inspired satire was the product of a joint literary effort by Mrs. Usrey, Mr. Barker, and Mr. Proctor, all members of the English Staff.

This instrument, tastefully presented by Dick Meisner, Connie Thomas, and Randy Jobe, was received by students and faculty with enthusiasm and the positive attitude in which it was obviously intended.

It is very pleasing to see the Methodist College is capable of seeing the humor of its own foibles. It is always good for a person or an institution to come to grips with its problems and view them with a positive and constructive attitude. We of the staff feel that more of such positive criticism would be healthy.

---STAFF

Change

Methodist College has made many great advances in its few short years. The student body has doubled in size every year and buildings are going up everywhere; but there is still a great deal to be done. When this college opened its doors, a firm and fixed set of rules met the first freshman classes. Everyone knows that whenever two people are in the same area, there must be certain rules to follow. Everyone accepts this. It is also good to try to forestall any problems before they arise, if possible; but these first rules must be viewed with an open mind.

No one can foresee all the problems which will arise in any organization. New rules must be made as they are needed. However, there is one trap into which many other organizations, including the city of Fayetteville, have fallen and which could be avoided. NOT ONLY MUST NEW RULES BE ADDED, OLD RULES MUST BE MODIFIED OR DROPPED AS NECESSARY.

In the city of Fayetteville, there is a law which prohibits a person from whistling or singing on the streets of the city. Perhaps in the days of the horse and buggy, this rule served some useful purpose, but that purpose is lost in this modern, noisy world.

Methodist College has some rules which should be changed or dropped from its books. Since the recognition of the Student Government Association some of the older rules conflict with the newer ones. At present, these conflicts are ignored, but the rules remain, waiting for someone to find and use them for his own purposes.

For one example of a rule change which is needed, the smoking procedure could be examined. The rule states that there shall be no smoking in class or in the library.

This rule has many obvious advantages. For one, many people do not smoke and object to smoking in others. Another point is the lack of proper facilities to take care of the refuse of smoking, and when a class of thirty or more begin smoking, there is bound to be a problem.

As can be seen, this rule should be expressed on the books of Methodist College, but its form should be changed. What happens in a class of eight students when all of them smoke including the instructor? Certainly there is no objection to the smoking if any care is taken. FINAL JUDGMENT IN THESE TWO MATTERS TO MENTION, SHOULD BELONG TO THE FACULTY.

No one will deny the necessity of having rules, but the rules must meet the present needs of the organization.

DAVID ALTMAN

S.G.A. Profile

This article is the first of a series which will profile the four SGA executive officers of the 1964-65 year.

"SIZE IS NOT THE MEASURE OF A MAN"

David Altman is an eagle scout, an uncle six times, past president of the '65 junior class, and a sports enthusiast.

Dave comes to us from Olean, a small town in western New York. He knows something of the world having come from a large family which includes: four sisters (all bachelors), and five sisters (three married). Both of his parents are capable of teaching school; however, his father went to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company as an assistant manager.

Olean High School lost a valuable asset with the graduation of Altman in 1961. Dave played football, basketball, and baseball at his high school.

In his sophomore year at Methodist College, Dave entered student

Many Are Called ...Few Are Chosen

Dr. Stacy Weaverspoke in chapel on February 24 on the theme "Many are called--few are chosen." The two things that constitute a call, he said are (1) need and (2) the ability to meet the need. "Now you are called to be a student--an important part of your living. . . if you get anything in college, you will get it by work."

"The world moves rapidly. . . there is a crisis in Viet Nam and we hardly act as if it made any difference."

He said that many students were receiving a second chance but that "second chances are going to be fewer in the future." The admission criteria demands increased academic standards he stated, adding, "but we have not yet found a way to judge character, motivation, desire, and maturity."

He said that a student must have a hunger to know, curiosity, a desire to learn, and that this hunger must be nurtured by hard work. He quoted the words written on the tombstone of an English historian, "I tried learning."

"The goal of every student should be maturity--social, intellectual, religious--in all aspects of living. This maturity I cherish for you and for this college."

In his concluding prayer, Dr. Weaver said he hoped that students would realize . . . "the urgency of what we do day to day . . . and that we take advantage of the opportunities."

Speaker Ban Law

Opposite Sides

The N. C. Federation of Young Republicans and the Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina took opposite stances during the weekend on the controversial speaker ban law.

The young GOP organization, meeting in Charlotte, went on record in support of the 1963 act which prohibits Communists and persons who have taken the fifth amendment from speaking on state-owned property.

EXHIBITS

Cumberland County area of such subjects as historical buildings, the ballet, animals, and several excellent character studies. Of all the character studies, one entitled "Guerrilla Cities" is most striking in that the soldier wears a beret which identifies him as a member of the well known Special Forces at Fort Bragg.

Professor R. Parker Wilson of the Library Committee reports that exhibits have been arranged for the months of March and April as follows: March through March 15 - African Art; March 15 through March 30 - a Foreign Language Exhibit featuring maps and coins, and a display of Letters from Prominent People, April 1, through April 15.

March Schedule

March 1: The Grelle K. Club.
March 3: Miss Anne Rothgeb, concert; next performer in the concert-lecture series.
March 8: Talent Show.
March 10: Address by Dr. Weaver.
March 15: SMALL TALK
March 17: The guest speaker will be Mr. Charles Byrd Wade, Jr., vice-president of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Corporation.
March 22, 24, and 26: Religious Emphasis Week.

MECHANICAL ROOM

Drink Machines

Last semester opened with a welcomed addition to the south end of the Classroom Building, downstairs lobby. Present, in addition to a familiar cigarette vendor, were two soft drink machines and a candy machine. These machines were removed within a few weeks because of a stipulation in the College By-Laws forbidding their presence.

Only unpleasant to the eye or ear were the stacks of empty bottles and crates and the "dull thud" of a sale. Also bottles meant more work for Mr. "Johnny" Tucker and the "dull" could have disturbed nearby offices.

Both of the problems could be eliminated, however, with the installation of the new vendors which serve their products in paper cups. Thus, all "professions" (thud crates, and bottles) will be solved.

The senate, with the endorsement of the deans, passed a resolution requesting our board of trustees to review the stipulation and allow the return of the machines.

These machines are sold not only by the many students who bring lunches and eat in the adjacent parking area, but also by the entire faculty. If the word came, these professors of the trip upstairs to the "ice box" where cold drinks are available to the administration and faculty only.

Larry Banks

M.C. Golf and Tennis Schedule

DATE	GOLF 1965	TENNIS	HOME
Friday, March 19	Campbell	Campbell	Home
Tuesday, March 23	Pembroke	Pembroke	Home
Wednesday, March 24		N. C. Wesleyan	Away
Thursday, March 25	N. C. Wesleyan and St. Andrews		Wesleyan
Monday, March 29	Western Maryland		Home
Friday, April 2	Charlotte	Charlotte	Away
Tuesday, April 6	Pembroke	Pembroke	Away
Thursday, April 8	Charlotte	Charlotte	Home
Monday, April 12	St. Andrews	St. Andrews	Away
Friday, April 13	Charlotte	Charlotte	Home
Tuesday, April 17	Charlotte	Charlotte	Away
Thursday, April 27	N. C. Wesleyan	N. C. Wesleyan	Home

First sign of Spring:
Friendliness in the air,
Chivalry at the doors,
April around the corner,
ELECTIONS

BUDGET

Post Office Box Rental - Rental for two Semesters - $1,000; total $1,000.
Total Proposed Budget $500,000.

Editor	Loche McLean
News Editor	Larry Barnes
Sports Editor	Wayne Autry
Business Manager	Ray Usery
Advertising Manager	Diane Underwood
Circulation Manager	Peter Petrousis
Photographer	Richard Austin
Staff	Gloria Austin
	William Billington
	Frank MacLemore
	Kathy Richardson
	Sherry Scott
	Walter Turner
	Gwen Collier
Advisor	Mr. Kenneth Proctor

SPORTS

"Jeezants, Hear me all."

BASKETBALL

The Monarchs lost in the first round of the DIC Conference Tournament to St. Andrews. The game was very close until St. Andrews grabbed the lead for keeps in the second half. Billy Honeycutt led the Monarch scoring with twenty-three points. Numerous mistakes in ball handling and a cold night from the floor hurt the Monarch attack.

The Monarch freshman team lost their final game of the season 80-64 to the E. M. L. freshmen. They hairy Monarchs lost the ball too many times to ever get a lead. The team was led by Johnson Murray with 23, Billy Honeycutt with 15, and Wayne Warren with 14.

INTRAMURALS

Ted Volroos, "Fat Rat" Marsh, and Rod Walbart won the titles in wrestling as the second floor waltzed away with the points. Kerry Pope and Jim Dietenhorer also won. The wrestling matches were interesting and a lot of fun and attracted a fairly large crowd each night.

The basketball championship was played February 23 at 4:30. The teams competing for the honor were the Day Student B Team and the 2nd Floor B Team.

The faculty allstar team will meet the intramural allstar team February 25 at 7:30. The game will be humorous if nothing else. The intramural allstars will be composed of Gary Miller, Capt., Wayne Autry, Gene Rapeley, Dale Marshall, Richard Vans, Walter Turner, Richard Pegrum, and Jerry Megee.

Varsity tennis and golf will begin in a month. The players are currently trying out for positions on the team.

The day students won the intramural basketball championship.

FARNSON, Good for 2

ALTMAN

politics as a member of the Community Council, which served as the student government before the adoption of the SGA constitution. Last year saw a very capable skipper at the helm of the junior class. This position prepared Dave for the task of presiding over the campus coordinate--the SGA.

The past three years he has been active in the intermural program, playing football, volleyball, and softball. He is a valuable member of the Varsity Basketball team, and has served as sports editor of SMALL TALK.

-Ray Ussery

Keep freedom in your future with

U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

Armour's Soda Shop

1331 Ramsey

Fountain
Toiletries
School Supplies

Cigarettes
Newspapers
Greeting Cards

Lafayette

Memorial Park

Best Wishes

The MONARCHS

Rawlings -- WEAR CLARK
Spalding -- EQUIPMENT
MacGregor --
and other major brands

Clark Sporting Goods

128 MAXWELL ST. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Belk-Hensdale
DEPARTMENT STORES
"Home of Better Values"

DOWNTOWN TALLYWOOD
109 St. thru to Franklin St. Shopping Center - Eastford Rd.

THOMPSON McLEAN, INC.
Realtors

211 ROWAN HE 32101

UNIQUE CLEANERS, INC.

"Let Unique Do It"

Cleaning Laundry Shirts

All Types Sewing

2008 RAMSEY ST.

PHONE - 433-1184

Bailey's Service

Lubrication
Road Service

Washing
Wrecker Service

HE 3-4238

Raleigh Road & Country Club Dr.

FOR HAPPY HEATING
Ask About Our Watch Dog Service

Esso

Dial HE 3-3106

D. K. Taylor Oil Company

202 Cumberland St. Fayetteville, N. C.

The London Shop
At Howard & Whitaker's
For
THE YOUNG MAN AND YOUNG MISS

Cricketeer
London Fog
Sero
Bass Weejuns
Canterbury

Chestnut Hill
London Fog
Country Shirt
Bass Weejuns
Austin Hill

Students Presented In Recital

Fayetteville, N. C. -- Eight Methodist College music students of Jean Ishae, instructor in piano, and Allen Porter, instructor in voice, were presented in a Student Recital Thursday, February 18, at 4:40 p.m. in the Student Union Lounge.

This was the sixth in the series of recitals for the current academic year.

Linda Dept, pianist, performed A. D. 1620, from "Sea Pieces" by MacDowell.

Kathy Richardson, pianist, performed Walzette, Set One, No. 1, 6 and 7 by Schubert.

Edra Nease, soprano, sang "My Heart Ever Faithful" by J. S. Bach. She was accompanied by Ann McKnight.

Betty Mitchell, soprano, accompanied by John Leeger, sang "The Two Grenadiers" by Schumann.

Bobby West, pianist, played Sonata, Op. 10, No. 1, Adagio molto by Beethoven.

Betty Mitchell, pianist, played Ich ruf zu Dir, Herr Jesu Christ by Bach.

Ann McKnight, pianist, completed the recital by playing "Intermezzo" by Gardner Read.

Misses Dept, Richardson, Zahran, McKnight and Mrs. Nease are all from Fayetteville. Mr. Leeger is from Gary, Ind.; Miss Mitchell is from Richmond, Va.; Miss West is from Mt. Olive.

LEGISLATORS

day and until noon on Saturdays was spent in legislative sessions.

Our delegation engaged more in the political aspect of the Legislature than in debate concerning the bills. From the time of their caucus at 7:15 on Friday night until the election at 3:15 on Saturday afternoon, Tommy, Walter, Ted worked hard and steady for two candidates. Chip Anderson of N. C. State was our delegation candidate for President. Although he lost by a vote of 69-67 it was estimated that our delegation delivered 25 of his votes. Tommy also worked tirelessly for Norritt Weaver of UNC-G, a candidate for Recording Secretary. Weaver was elected.

Walter Turner was one of ten students selected by Robert Spearman, U. N. C. president of the State Student Legislature to be on a conference committee to consider bills that had been approved by both houses in different forms.

Ted Voorhees was appointed M. C.'s representative to S. S. L. Interim Council.

Additions To The Family...

Fayetteville, N. C. -- Richard A. Ehrhart of Greensboro has assumed the position of instructor in the Department of Economics and Business Administration at Methodist College. He will also serve as part-time accountant in the college's business office, replacing William L. Eddins who has taken a position with Southeastern Community College at Whiteville.

Ehrhart is a native of Norfolk, Va. and a graduate of Old Dominion College with the Bachelor of Business Administration degree with major in accounting.

Mr. Ehrhart and his wife, Norma, and four children, ages 11, 10, 8 and 4 live at 461 Waterbury Drive in College Lakes. They are members of the Methodist Church.

Thomas L. Baucum of 405 Oakland Drive has been appointed assistant director of admissions at Methodist College. He will begin duties February 15.

Baucum is a 1958 graduate of Fayetteville Senior High School. While in high school he was a member of the National Honor Society.

From high school he went to Duke University where he received the A. B. degree in history in 1962. While in college he was active in the YMCA and Methodist Student Center.

Baucum is a member of the Trinity Baptist Church.

-Ray USSery

M & O CHEVROLET CO.
HE 32188
Fayetteville, N.C.

Chevy II 4-Door 6-Passenger Station Wagon in Danube Blue

EAT SHOP VISIT THE STUDENT STORE

in the Student Union Building

NEW ITEMS

Mugs (Various Sizes)
Strip Decals

ALL SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Books, Paper, Study Aids,
Pencils, Notebooks

FOUNTAIN AND GRILLE

Hamburgers, Milkshakes, Cakes,
Chewing Gum, Nuts, Candy, Cakes, Hot Dogs

MONOGRAMMED ITEMS

Methodist College Sweat Shirts,
Hats, Decals, Jackets, Towels
Weekend Bags

Everything For The Students

JOHN PARKER, Manager

Y.D.C. Winter Rally In Winston-Salem

A delegation of YDC members attended the Winter Rally of the North Carolina Federation of College Young Democrats in Winston-Salem. Representing Methodist College were Walter Turner, Loche McLean, and Lewis Coker. Registration began at 5:00 p. m. on February 12. During the rally, college Democrats made a detailed study of President Johnson's Medicare Bill.

Many Interesting speakers were heard during the sessions. Mr. J. Melville Broughton, Jr., made the Keynote Address Friday night. One of the best speeches of the evening came from Charlie Mercer, president of the North Carolina Teen-Dems. Friday night ended, at least theoretically, with a cocktail party in the Balloune Roof of the Robert E. Lee hotel where all the events took place.

Saturday was spent in the study of the Medicare Bill. Two speakers pointed out the pros and cons of the bill and the audience decided to endorse the measure. Franklin D. Rozak, College Director of the Democratic National Committee, spoke after the Medicare speakers and set the tone for the remaining events. The scheduled events ended with a luncheon in the State Room of the hotel on Saturday.

The federation adjourned with the following actions taken. They endorsed the Medicare Bill; they elected a new treasurer; they sent a resolution to the North Carolina General Assembly requesting that they repeal the Speaker Ban Law. The sessions were very successful.

ANNE ROTHGEB

completed a seven-months tour with the National Opera Company in the 1960-61 season. In the summer of 1961 she sang the title role in the Vienna Chamber Opera production of an unknown Romantic opera, "Gelegenheit Macht Dieb", at the Schoenbrunn Palace Theatre.

During Miss Rothgeb's visit to the college, she gave an informal program during the chapel hour at 11:30 on March 3. She met with voice students on the same day.

Take 5... and swing out refreshed.
Coca-Cola — with its bright lively lift, big bold taste,
never too sweet — refreshes best.

things go better with
Coke

Bottled under the authority of The Coca-Cola Company
by Fayetteville Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

YOUR FULL - SERVICE BANK

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS
CHECKING ACCOUNTS
SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

"We Invite Student Checking Accounts."

5 CONVENIENT OFFICES TO SERVE YOU

MAIN OFFICE - 100 HAY ST.

*In Downtown Fayetteville
Member F.D.I.C.*

Quick Clean Center

1. Closest Laundromat to College
2. Juice Box, Snack Bar, Hair Dryers
3. Comfortable Lounge

2911 Ramsey St. 4329705

LEON SUGAR'S men's shop

DOWNTOWN

131 Hay St.

Phone 432-2477

Vol. 5 Nos. 6 - 8

METHODIST COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

May, 1965

DOUBLE

sMALL TALK

BISHOP PAUL HARDIN, JR.

DR. DOUGLAS M. KNIGHT

Baccalaureate, Graduation Speakers Announced

Fayetteville, N. C., —Dr. Douglas M. Knight, President of Duke University, and Bishop Paul Hardin Jr., Resident Bishop of the Columbia Area of the Methodist Church, Columbia, S. C., have been chosen as speakers for the second annual commencement exercises at Methodist College.

Bishop Hardin will preach the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 30, at 11:00 a. m. Dr. Knight will deliver the commencement address at the graduation exercises on May 31 at 10:30 a. m.

The baccalaureate service and the graduation exercises will both be held on campus in the Student Union.

Bishop Hardin is a native of Chester, S. C. He is a graduate of Wofford College and theandler School of Theology, Emory University. The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him by Wofford College and by Birmingham-Southern College.

From 1927 to 1949 he served as pastor of churches in the western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church. From 1949 to 1960 he was pastor of First Methodist Church, Birmingham, Alabama. During the 11 years as pastor of this church, the budget grew from $70,000 to $288,000 and during this time, approximately 3000 new members united with the church.

In 1960 he was elected bishop of the Methodist Church and was assigned to the Columbia Area.

In 1963-64 he served as president of the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church. He is a long-time member of the Board of Trustees of Lake Junaluska Assembly and is chairman of the Program Committee.

His sermon subject will be, "A Mountain to Climb."

Dr. Knight is a native of Cambridge, Mass. He holds the A. B., M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Yale University. Honorary degrees have been conferred on him by six colleges and universities including Davidson and Wake Forest.

Dr. Knight taught English and English Literature at Yale, was visiting professor at University of California at Berkeley. He was President of Lawrence University, Appleton, Wisconsin from 1954-1963.

In 1963 he was elected to the presidency of Duke University.

He is a member of numerous boards, commissions and committees throughout the nation, among them are: National Merit Scholarship Board, Edward W. Hazen Foundation, Board of Trustees of Education and World Affairs, and the National Science Foundation's Divisional Committee for Institutional Programs.

President and Mrs. Weaver will hold a reception on campus for the graduates and their families at 4 p. m., Sunday, May 30.

The first Alumni Banquet will be held on Saturday evening, May 29 at 7 o'clock in the college dining hall.

Senate Resolution

RESOLUTION FOR STUDENT COMMITTEE TO WORK WITH FACULTY CONCERT LECTURE SERIES COMMITTEE.

Whereas: There is poor attendance, by students, to most Concert-Lecture Series performances, and

Whereas: There is no voice of the student body as to who is to appear at the Concert-Lecture Series, and

Whereas: The Concert-Lecture Series is budgeted, in most part, (See RESOLUTION, page 2)

- SCHEDULE -

May 30 - Sunday
(11:00 A.M.) Baccalaureate Service

(4:00 P.M.) President's Reception For Graduates and Their Parents

May 31 - Monday
(10:30 A.M.) Graduation Exercises

June 2 - Summer School Begins
June 10 - Deadline for $25.00 Registration fee

Mrs. Garby and some of her students pose with exhibits to be presented at the Student Spring Art Show.

Athletic Awards Presented May 13 At Annual Banquet

Thursday evening, May 13, the Second Annual Athletic Banquet was held in the cafeteria at Methodist College. Master of ceremonies, Mr. Allen Wadsworth, chairman of the Athletic Committee, introduced the guests. In recognition was delivered by Dr. Wadsworth. Mr. Frank Larson introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Charence "Ace" Barker, Assistant Football Coach and Head Basketball Coach, Duke University. Five trophies were presented this year. Coach Clayton presented Jerry Luckabee of the Cross-country team as Most Valuable Player. Clayton also presented the Most Valuable Player Award in tennis to Seldon Rapely. Coach Earnest

Schwarz presented the Most Valuable Player Award in golf to George Golomb and in basketball to Carson Blanton. Mr. Howard Barnes presented the Most Improved Player Award to Wayne Auri.

See Sports on Page 8

New Editor

Larry Barnes, a twenty-year old Junior at Methodist College, has been elected as editor of sMALL TALK for the 1965-66 year. Larry has been active on the staff for three years. Last year he was Advertising Manager, and this year he has served as News Editor.

Larry graduated from Fayetteville Senior High School in 1962. In his first year at Methodist College, he served as class treasurer and as a member of the S. G. A. Constitutional Committee. In his sophomore year he was a member of the Sophomore Class Activities Committee and the Circle K Club Board of Directors. He made the Dean's List both semesters.

LARRY BARNES

This year, in addition to his small talk obligations - Larry has served as Junior Class President, a member of the Judicial Council, the Chorus, and Westminster Fellowship. He was campaign manager for S. G. A. President Tommy Yow.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Barnes of Fayetteville, and the family attends Comfort Presbyterian Church. Larry has also been elected to serve next year as Chief Justice of the S. G. A. Judicial Council, in addition to his position as editor of sMALL TALK.

Merchant C. Cottingham

Barney L. Davidson

Henry B. Dixon

New Trustees Elected

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., — The Board of Trustees of Methodist College has adopted an operating budget of $1,206, 753 for the college's 1965-66 fiscal year which begins July 1, 1965.

The action was taken during the spring meeting of the Board on Tuesday, May 4. A capital budget of $121,928 was also approved.

In his report to the Board, Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, president of the college, stated that 700 students have enrolled at the college during the current academic year. He requested the Board to authorize the granting of degrees to 67 seniors, and to issue upon the satisfactory completion of the current semester's work.

In the area of academic affairs, the President reported that seven additional faculty members will be added for the next school year. This will bring the total number of teaching faculty to 49.

Weaver also noted that the college has received from the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, the North Carolina College Conference, the State Department of Public Instruction, and the University Senate of the Methodist Church, all of the academic recognitions available to the college at this time.

George Vossler, president of the Fayetteville College Foundation, reviewed the work of the Foundation during the past year and reported that $87,372 has been collected and turned over to the college since July 1, 1964. He expressed confidence that contributions through the Foundation would exceed $100,000 by July 1, 1965. He outlined plans for the immediate future and pledged the full support of the people of Fayetteville and Cumberland County through the Fayetteville College Foundation.

Members of the Board of Trustees expressed appreciation to Mr. Vossler and to William L. Pope, Executive Director of the Foundation, for the excellent work being done. They noted that this was one of the best reports from the Foundation that they had heard in a long time.

The Reverend James Auman, Executive Director of the Association of Methodist Colleges of North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, reported that over 1800 students are now enrolled.

(See NEW TRUSTEES, Page 8)

Auditorium - Fire Arts

Building In Sight

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., — Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, president of Methodist College, announced today a gift of $200,000 to the college from John M. Reeves of Memphis. The announcement was made during the annual Spring meeting of the college's Board of Trustees, of which Mr. Reeves is a member. In making the announcement, President Weaver, said, "It is with a sense of joy and gratitude that I am able to announce this gift from Mr. Reeves. We are grateful for the vision of this splendid Methodist Layman."

"The gift, which is the largest single contribution ever to be received by the college, will be directed to the beginning of a fund for the purpose of building the Auditorium - Fire Arts Building. This building is expected to cost three quarters of a million dollars."

Reeves has been an ardent supporter of the college since it was chartered in 1956. He was elected to the Board of Trustees of the college by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in June, 1962.

A native North Carolinian, Reeves is Chairman of the Board of Reeves Brothers, Inc., textile firm of New York. He is chairman of the North Carolina Ports Authority, an active Methodist layman, and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of American University, Washington, D. C.

Methodist College, which opened for the first freshman class in 1961, has grown to a campus of 13 buildings, plus the Bell Tower. The last building to be built was the library which was occupied in November, 1964.

Enrollment at the college has grown to a total of 700 students during the current academic year.

Editorial Comments

"Where the press is free, and every man able to read, all is safe." Thomas Jefferson

Let me begin by affirming my feelings concerning this college. I doubt that there are many students who love this college as much as I do. For that very reason, I believe this editorial is important. Methodist College has several problems which hamper its reaching maturity as an important educational institution. The first problem discussed by everyone is the attitude of the administration. There are several aspects of this attitude. The first is the "if you don't like it here, you can leave" attitude. This really discourages effort on the part of the student to initiate, what, at least he believes to be improvements. However, aside from the rudeness and childishness of this attitude, it is probably the best justified. After all, you can go somewhere else, or you can sign the admission form—whereby you agree to abide by the rules of the college no matter how unfair you think these rules are.

Then, why bother at all? Because there are methods, "legal" methods, by which the student can make his wishes known and bring about a change of the rules. When I say "legal" methods, I am very aware that these are sometimes ignored, but upon honesty is the best policy.

The second problem attitude of the administration and by far the most disgusting is the "closed-door" policy. After a student has violated one of the more serious rules, he is apt to be taken into an office with a closed door and given the word. Then he is informed that if he relates any of this discussion outside the room, it will be denied. This attitude encouraged deceit on the part of the students. It is quite obvious that this is a natural consequence, if this is carried to an extreme, there is a battle between students and administration, each trying to outwit the other.

The second major problem discussed by the students here at MC is the quality of education they are receiving. Many say the faculty is too strict in class, treating them as high school students, while others say the faculty is too lenient. Some students say too much work must be done on one's own initiative. I say this is a balancing act of opinion.

The major problem in the quality of education is the courses which are offered. The student is often not able to complete his course of study in the correct amount of time. Often the courses offered are essentially the same as lower numbered courses. I think this problem is very serious, but perhaps it will be changed as the school grows.

Let me again say I love Methodist College and I would encourage a prospective student to enter this college because the education here is not limited to the classroom. There is a challenge in starting a new college which can not be equaled and which prepares the student for problems outside of college.

Loche McLean
Editor

Grave Injustice To Art

FROM: Greensboro Daily News, editorial, Monday, September 7, 1964. Sydney J. Harris column

When I hear a person say that he wants more "realism" in art, I know what he means. He means that he wants more sentimentality, and less realism.

The confusion and self-delusion that exists in the popular mind on the subject of art can be easily demonstrated, for the same people who demand "realism" in painting decry "realism" in literature.

Presented with a grimly realistic piece of writing—say, "Studs Lonigan" books of James T. Farrell—such persons immediately recoil in disgust and indignation.

Why put in all the sordid details? they protest. "It isn't necessary to show everything in a novel. We know that people are often ugly and dirty, and life can be bleak and squalid. But why not point out the higher things, the positive things, instead of the sordid?"

There is a defensible point of view; but then they have no right to clamor for "realism" in art—for what they really want is the pink-and-white picture on the cover of a candy box, and not a faithful reproduction of life in all its aspects.

And, similarly, what they want in painting is not "realism," but a candy-box portrait that will be familiar and reassuring and possibly "cute".

Horses, dogs, pastoral scenes and mothers holding babies are their favorite pictorial subjects.

Now, these subjects are part of reality, but not all of it. They are abstracted from reality—just as, they are pulled out of the squalor and pithos of real life and presented as abstract ideals of the Perfect Horse, Perfect Dog, Perfect Pastoral Scene, Perfect Mother and Child.

So, it is quite clear that these people are not against "abstract" art at all—they merely want the kind of abstractions they are used to, the kind that makes them feel comfortable and does not compel them to re-examine their way of looking at the world or thinking about it.

All art is abstraction, of one sort or another. No art is realistic, for then it would no longer be art, but stenography. Some art is an abstraction of sentimentality, and some is an abstraction of original thought and profound emotion.

Until we understand this, we understand nothing about art, or about our reactions to it—and we do the artist a grave injustice by making judgements on his work.

Submitted by Mrs. Garthwy

College Editors Given Awards

CHARLOTTE -- College editors at Wake Forest and the University of North Carolina have captured most of the honors in the 1965 College Press Awards competition in the Carolinas.

The 24 awards, ten of them in cash ranging from $15 to $50, were presented to writers of eight college newspapers at a luncheon here Saturday in the City Club.

The awards, sponsored by The Charlotte Observer and The Charlotte News, were presented by J.E. Dowd, general manager of The Observer and vice president of Knight Publishing Company.

Judges considered 323 different entries submitted in five categories from 36 college newspaper staffs. All college newspapers in North Carolina and South Carolina were invited to submit entries.

First, second and honorable mention awards were presented for the best editorial, best news story, best feature story, best sports story, and the best overall college newspaper.

Wake Forest won three first place awards and the University of North Carolina received one first place and three second place awards. Davidson College captured the other first place award and North Carolina State the other second place award.

Albert Hunt, Wake Forest senior was the only college writer winning two first place awards.

The winners, by categories are: Editorials—Albert Hunt, Wake Forest, first ($25); Hugh Stevens and Fred Seely (joint entry), UNC, second ($15); Honorable mention, Lewis Gaston, Appalachian State, Charles Dibble, Davidson, and Bill Hamilton, Clemson.

News stories—Albert Hunt, Wake Forest, first ($25); Cora Kemp, North Carolina State University, second ($15); Honorable mention, Ernie McCrary, UNC, Carol Claxon, Wake Forest, Mike Yopp, UNC, and Ralph Simpson, Wake Forest.

Feature stories—Ted Glusman, Davidson, first ($25); Fred Seely, UNC, second ($15); Honorable mention, Albert Hunt, Wake Forest, Carol Claxon, Wake Forest, and Mike Yopp, UNC.

Sports stories—Bob Lipper, Wake Forest, first ($25); Curry Kirkpatrick, UNC, second ($15); and Honorable mention, Richard Mills, Wake Forest.

Best College Newspaper—The Daily Tar Heel, UNC, first ($50); Hugh Stevens and Fred Seely, Co-See COLLEGE EDITORS Page 8

Academic Community Is Defined

--Philadelphia, Pa.-(L. P.)-The Declaration of Principles, adopted by Temple University's Student Council, defines the ideal academic community, and the role of students in student government.

Another proposal passed this year allows Council to meet in closed session on national and international issues provided "the various sides of an issue are fully discussed on campus prior to passage and there are adequate safeguards against unrepresentative action by Council."

"The ideal academic community to be approached whenever faculty, students, and administration contribute from their background and experience to the management of the phases of student community from their background and experience to the management of the phases of that community with which they are concerned directly.

"The concerns of Student Council," the Declaration continues, "should be as broad as those with which the individual student deals in the University."

SENATE RESOLUTION

(Continued from Page 1)
from the special fee paid by students.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Senate of the S. G. A. that:

ARTICLE I: Section 1: A committee be established to work with the faculty committee (Concert-Lecture Series Committee) for: (a) act as a sounding board for student opinion involving the Concert-Lecture Series. (b) Work with the faculty committee to improve the content of the Concert-Lecture Series. (c) Work to improve advertising of Concert-Lecture Series performances on campus.

Section 2: (a) This committee will consist of one male student and one female student, (b) These students be appointed by the President of the Student Government Association and approved by a majority vote of the Senate of the S. G. A.

ARTICLE II: A copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the College, Dean of the College, Dean of Students, all members of the faculty committee on Concert-Lecture Series, and members of the Student Life Committee.

From The Tower

WITH RAY USSERY

A man should NOT leave his forwarding address if he yields to temptation.

The issue of a fixed election exists in the dark shadows of M. C. I charge the believers to defend this issue by burying apathy via SMALL TALK. History has proven followers of apathy to be the first to cry... what a damnation to society.

Unconstitutional Suffrage

People low and people high,
Drop your goodies - hear me blow:
The "McBroy" continues to grow
Acting low, yet striving... ahigh?

Tis the time that tie to try
Judgment seeking for to show,
O' "McBroy" 'tiedge" is wrong you know.

Estoppe now, else wave bye-bye!

Suffrage; it's of the essence
To reserve thy name!
As it's misuse leads not to fame,
But to corruption coming hence.

Do it now, not in fright!
Tis now, the road beyond,
Oh curse the infant's might,
Ask it now: Who plays your bond?

Tis now the cock crows,
Check him now, as he grows.

Equal rights; installation of drink machines OR removal of administration refrigerator. Though students do not merit the same attention and respect as the "TEACH" it is quite possible for us to desire refreshment too. The College Chorus extends a hearty "hello" for participating in the chorus activities this year. We welcome the opportunity to serve you in the years to come. The right to elect government comes not from the hand of the administration, but from the responsibility of the students.

T. S. Y
A giggling faculty member extended his approval of the "sap rise" of young lowers. This reporter agrees... how sweet it is. "We Shall Overcome" is often heard in concert halls of today. To represent - not officiate.

R. A. M.
You win a few and you lose a few... "It's hard but it's fair!" R.K.U., Sr.
A cure for M. C. ills: "Neither a borrower, nor a lender be; For loan on loses both itself and And borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry." -- Hamlet (Act I, scene 3, line 78)

A popular personality asserted that we would have a tremendous election this year, since we would lose either way... but 80% of M. C. felt differently. How to stop worrying and start living: Graduate from M. C. H. M. S.

The spirited Religious Emphasis speaker certainly was on the ball; he beat the Union bell two of the three days.

Repression and comments arising from this column may be sent via "letters to the Editor." Letters may be deposited in the appropriate box located in the north end dormitories section of the classroom building. This reporter encourages comments in connection with the contents of this column.

small TALK

METHODIST COLLEGE PATTERSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Veritas

— of —

Virtus

Editor	Loche McLean
News Editor	Larry Barnes
Sports Editor	Wayne Autry
Business Manager	Ray USSery
Advertising Manager	Diane Underwood
Circulation Manager	Peter Petroutas
Photographer	Richard Adair
Staff	Gloria Autry
	William Billings
	Fran MacLemore
	Kathy Richardson
	Sherry Scott
	Walter Turner
	Gwen Collier
Advisor	Mr. Kenneth Proctor

1965
WE SALUTE YOU!

Top: Scenes From 1964-65 May Dance

GOOD LUCK CLASS of 1965

Bottom: Scenes From Green & Gold Masquees First Play "Everybody Loves Opel"

ELECTION

APRIL

1965

Dr. Millard P. Burt Resigns; Accents Position At N.C. State

DR. MILLARD P. BURT

"But sir, I need both this history course and introduction to philosophy in order to graduate this year and yet they are both being taught at the same hour. My advisor told me to see you, can you help?"

Similar questions by countless students have been directed to Millard P. Burt, Dean of Methodist College for the past two years. He recently resigned to accept a position as Assistant Director of the North Carolina State University at Raleigh effective July 1, 1965. His announcement was greeted with mixed reactions by the students can not be denied. One wonders what kind of man is Dean Burt and what has been the effect of his one-year stay at Methodist College.

That he is tall (6 feet 4), with penetrating eyes, with an unbridled appearance, that he possesses a cluttered desk and works long hours -- is evident. That he is a complex man -- and the reasons why -- is less evident.

Dean Burt was born on a farm at Fuquay, N. C. in 1917. He grew up in Raleigh and graduated from high school there in 1934. In high school he developed an early love for music. He entered Atlantic Christian College -- then a small church-related school -- in the fall of 1934. As a freshman, he organized and directed bands at Smithfield, Selma, Farmville,

Spring Hope, and Tarboro. He was a member of a number of societies, the men's dormitory council, and the student government. He graduated in 1938 with several music courses but with a major in mathematics.

For the next two years, he taught music in the Raleigh Public Schools.

He had joined the National Guard in 1932 as a private and bass player--and has remained in the Guard ever since. In the fall of 1940, he began active duty in the army which was to last throughout the war. In the fall of 1942, the 30th Infantry Division band was formed and Millard Burt became its first director. The band played for several dignitaries during the early part of the war, but when the Division participated in D-Day and other theatres of the war, the band instruments were left behind in England. The 30th Infantry Division has been recognized as one of the outstanding divisions in the European Theater of operations.

After a course in French at the Sorbonne University in the summer of 1945, Millard Burt returned to North Carolina and to a position as director of bands in the Raleigh Public Schools. With the exception of one year of academic leave, he held this position until 1952. In this period he continued graduate work at the University of North Carolina on Saturdays and night classes, and during the summers. In 1948, he received his Master of Arts in Education and Music, and in 1952 received his Ph. D. in the same fields. In the fall of 1952, he accepted a position as chairman of the department of education and psychology at his Alma Mater, Atlantic Christian College. He taught education courses and was responsible for the teacher training program and for the placement of teachers.

In early 1955, Dr. Burt became Assistant Director of the North Carolina Prison Department in charge of rehabilitation and training. His duties were to administer the department's classification, records, education, recreation, religious, and medical services.

But his Alma Mater wanted him back again and this time he was offered the position of dean in 1958. He accepted and held this position until the summer of 1963, when he took a cut in salary and accepted the opportunity to become dean of Methodist College.

Thus he began two years that was to actively involve him in the events of the college. One of his first changes was to allow freshmen to participate in extra-curricular activities. It was arranged for Methodist College students to be included in Wino's Who's Who: Students in American Universities and Colleges. An elective system of academic probation and suspension was established. Many changes were made in the curriculum. Some of the outstanding members of the present faculty were recruited during this two-year period. Methodist College became a member of the North Carolina College Conference. It received designation as a candidate for accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, an indication that the program of the college meets the Association's standards. At the present time, Dean Burt is directing an extensive Self-Study by members of the faculty. This study, he says, "will reveal many improvements to be implemented and which will hopefully lead to full accreditation in 1966 that will be retroactive to 1964."

But academic life was not the only concern of Dean Burt. Working directly under the Dean of the College is the Dean of Students, the Dean of Women, and the Registrar. Thus Dean Burt was also involved in student social life, in life in the residential halls, in relations with the S. G. A. Thus a few weeks ago, when students left their trays on the table at luncheon as a protest against a school policy, Dean Burt recruited some assistants and cleared the tables. When 19 students were involved in an unauthorized off-campus party last fall, the Student Life Committee directed an investigation and it was evident that Dean Burt "called the shots." Five students were eventually dismissed from school. The student body was in an uproar. One S. G. A. leader called Dean Burt's actions "completely unfair." But

See DR. BURT, Page 7

Belk-Hensdale

DEPARTMENT STORES
"Home of Better Values"

DOWNTOWN

May St. W. to Franklin St.

TALLYWOOD

Shopping Center - Rutherford Rd.

The London Shop

At Howard & Whitaker's

For
THE YOUNG MAN AND YOUNG MISS

Cricketer
London Fog
Sero
Flass Weepins
Canterbury

Chestnut Hill
London Fog
Country Shirt
Flass Weepins
Austin Hill

FOR HAPPY HEATING
Ask About Our Watch Dog Service

Esso

Dial HE 3-3106

D. K. Taylor Oil Company

202 Cumberland St. Fayetteville, N. C.

McBryde's Opticians

Leon & Alex
Glasses Made & Repaired
Contact Lenses

304 Hay Street
Phone HE 2-5487

Monza Sport Coupe in Regal Red

M&O Chevrolet Co. Fayetteville, N. C. HE 3-2188

The MONARCH

Rawlings -- WEAR CLARK
Spalding -- EQUIPMENT
MacGregor --
and other major brands

Clark Sporting Goods

128 MAXWELL ST. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

How Much Academic Freedom

Waverly, Ia.-(I.P.)—How much academic freedom should a college have? In his inaugural address, "Toward Greater Completeness," Dr. John W. Bachman, newly-installed president of Wartburg College, states:

"At this point we may seem to be touching a sore spot, the weakest characteristic of a church-related college. From an aesthetically Christian perspective this is strange because one of our claims to distinctiveness rests in the conviction that in what we call revelation there is a whole realm of reality that transcends more ordinary methods of inquiry. "Thus, it is more appropriate for us to favor all possible extension rather than inhibition of inquiry. In this spirit something will be done and said on our campus which will not exactly coincide with all that previous generations have said and one, but it would be disrespectful of those generations to let this stand in our way."

Dr. Bachman then added his dimension of form, "the character and quality of the educational process." He said the school will modify the form it has taken in the past but that it will remain a community of committed scholars.

"Scholars, we will be," Dr. Bachman said, "unrestrained by limits of height, depth or breadth and acknowledging that there is no single valid method of inquiry no matter how absolute its claims. At Wartburg, we do not wish to confine ourselves to serving already existing intellectual interests.

Votes No On Gag Law

Durham, N.H.-(I.P.)—The New Hampshire House of Representatives by a roll call of 205 to 176 voted recently to "indefinitely postpone" adoption of legislation which would have barred "any official, representative or member of subversive organizations access to state facilities."

Legislative leaders consider the "indefinite postponement" action as tantamount to defeat of the legislation, since it now can be reintroduced only with the approval of two-thirds of the House membership.

DR. BURT

Continued From Page 6
now in retrospect, most students have accepted the sentences as fair. One of those students involved in the investigation, when asked to appraise Dean Burt's role commented, "I guess he was just doing his job."

But despite all of his administrative duties, he has taught a course in "History and Philosophy of Education." One of his former students described him this way: "He is the type of teacher who can really become excited in his subject. He makes Abilard, Francis Bacon, Comenius, Rousseau, and the other education pioneers come alive. He loves to teach the concepts of 'idealism' vs. 'pragmatism.' His students gain insights into human nature and an understanding of others -- but their greatest reward is learning more about themselves."

Dean Burt has been active in a number of civic activities through the years. He is a past District Governor of the Sigma Club, and past president of the Shrine Bandmaster's Association of America. This past fall he was elected president of the Association of Academic Deans of the North Carolina College Conference. He is a Chief Warrant Officer in the North Carolina National Guard and he directed the North Carolina National Guard Band which played at Governor Moore's inauguration. Other activities include Masonic Order, Shrine Club, B. E. O. E., North Carolina Education Association, National Education Association, Phi Delta Kappa, and Alpha Sigma Phi.

Dean Burt is married to the former Beulah Aycoch and they have two children.

W. R. T.

SENATE RESOLUTION

Continued From Page 5
function at the Student Union any number of persons are required to walk through various weather conditions and;

Whereas: To meet the rising population at Methodist College more parking spaces are necessary and;

Whereas: Any Student Union should and must have a parking lot anyway.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF METHODIST COLLEGE THAT:

Article I: We request that a large parking lot be built to accommodate the Student Union parking problem.

Article II: This lot accommodate at least 250 or more automobiles and be located North East of the Student Union between the Science Building and Garber Hall and between the two walkways leading from the Student Union and Science Building to Garber Hall.

Article III: This lot be open to all traffic--faculty, staff, students and visitors alike.

PASSED BY SENATE
MAY 11, 1965

Life's a picnic when you're refreshed.
Coca-Cola, with its cold crisp taste,
is always just right,
never too sweet . . . refreshes best.

things GO
better with
Coke

Bottled by the Fayetteville Coca Cola Bottling Company.

LEON SUGAR'S
men's shop

131 Hay St.

DOWNTOWN

Phone 432-2477

Bailey's

Service

Lubrication
Road Service

Washing
Wrecker Service

Raleigh Road

& Country Club Dr.

HE 3-4238

THOMPSON / McLEAN, INC.
Realtors
211 ROWAN HE 32101

EAT SHOP VISIT THE STUDENT STORE

in the Student Union Building

NEW ITEMS

Mugs (Various Sizes)
Strip Decals

ALL SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Books, Paper, Study Aids,
Pencils, Notebooks

FOUNTAIN AND GRILLE

Hamburgers, Milkshakes, Cakes,
Chewing Gum, Nuts, Candy, Cokes, Hot Dogs

MONOGRAMMED ITEMS

Methodist College Sweat Shirts,
Hats, Locals, Jackets, Towels,
weekend bags

Everything For The Students

JOHN PARKER, Manager

Quick Clean Center

1. Closest Laundromat to College
2. Juice Box, Snack Bar, Hair Dryers
3. Comfortable Lounge

2911 Ramsey St. 4329705

Methodist College tennis team: Sparky Rayley, Jerry Hucklebee, John Handy, Les Menpels, (back row, Coach Gene Clayton, Gene Burke, Wayne Williamson, and Ian MacGregor.)

Sports Season Ends At Methodist College

It is with pride and appreciation that this reporter covers the summary of Methodist College Athletics this year. The school is young and it is expected that she would not place at the top in every field. However, the progress that our teams have made far exceeds the normal advancement of a young college.

The golf team under the leadership of coach Ernest Schwarz finished second in the Dixie inter-collegiate Conference Tournament. The overall reward was six wins and seven losses and the conference record was five and two. Lynchburg College finished in first place. Last year the team won two contests while losing ten for a fourth place finish. The team will be strong next year and a hard one to beat. All men will return except senior Dick Glave. Members of this year's team (according to standing as played) include the following: Richard Evans, Steve Godwin, Richard Goffort, Lee Little, Bill Tar, George Parker, Billy Breeder, Dick Glave, and David Brown.

The Tennis Team under the direction of Coach Gene Clayton finished 3rd in the conference—Sparky Rayley, team manager, represented the school in the tournament. He was defeated by Mickey Pell of Charleston College for the number one spot. The score was 6-3, 6-2. Members of the team include the following: Sparky Rayley, Jerry Hucklebee, Wayne Williamson, John Handy, Les Menpels, Ian MacGregor, and Gene Burke.

The cross country team last fall came in second in a field of six in the DIAC. The team lost to Lynchburg in the conference meet.

In basketball, the team placed fourth in the conference, one place higher than last year. Carson Harman was elected to the all conference team for the second year while Don Larson won honorable mention.

The bowling team placed fifth this year. Members of the 1964-65 bowling team include Tamar Tanimee, Wayne Autry, Gary Miller, George Fearne, Mack Worley, Orrin Jowell, Dale Marshall, Diane Sanford, Robert Nardone, Robert Hamilton, Richard Demund, John Lipscomb, and Robert Ramsey. In summing up the year's activities, coach Schwarz said: "We are hoping that other activities will be offered in the near future." The other activities include inter-collegiate baseball, soccer, track and field.

Student Spring Art Show

The show would seem to merit special commendation since it is the work of relatively uninitiated students. These promising young people have answered the challenge of the many problems of the creative process with verve and a spirit of confidence. These significant expressions employing a wide range of media would seem to further verify the assumption that continued depth of involvement with whatever medium can effect meaningful solutions. Consistently the students have indicated this with their rising enthusiasm as they assumed responsibility. This is evidence in the herein presented unique individual expressions together with the thoughtful jurying for the selection of entries and the mastery of the complexities of organization pertaining to the hanging and presentation of this exhibit.

To have been a witness to this development has been highly rewarding. There will long remain the deep sense of having been privileged to have been a partner in the sharing of their joy of accomplishment.

Elizabeth Garthly
Professor, Area of Fine Arts

NEW TRUSTEES ELECTED

(Continued from Page 1)

rolled in the three colleges—Methodist, N.C. Wesleyan at Rocky Mount, and Lenoir College. He also reported that over $240,000 has been collected during the conference year for the support of higher education.

Officers of the Board of Trustees elected for the next fiscal year are: Terry Sanford, Fayetteville, Chairman; C. C. Johnson, Johnson, Goldsboro, Vice-Chairman; John W. Hensdale, Fayetteville, Secretary; Wilson F. Yarborough, Fayetteville, Treasurer.

At the conclusion of the business session, the board members and their wives joined President and Mrs. Weaver for lunch in the college dining hall.

Three new Trustees were elected to terms on the Board. They are M. Merchant, C. C. Johnson, Rev. Barney L. Davidson and Mr. Henry B. Dixon.

Honor System Examined

--Williamsburg, Va.--(A. I.)--Recent national attention to the question of the effectiveness of the honor system in American colleges and universities, makes especially timely the statement on the subject from the College of William and Mary, where the honor system was first introduced by an alumnus, Thomas Jefferson, in 1779.

At the college where it began, the honor system has been subjected to re-examination by students and faculty as a response to the current public interest in the subject. The 1962 brochure prepared by a committee of students and faculty on the subject, The Honor System of the College of William and Mary, has met with a wide interest among colleges and universities.

Dr. Davis V. Paschall, president of William and Mary, in a recently released statement to the college community points out that such a system as ours is free and strong only if it may be periodically examined and questioned. It behooves us to remember, however, that such a questioning, as strong and arduous as it may be, can never change the meaning of honor, although it can, if undisciplined by self-restraint and upgrided by wisdom, subvert the respect given to it.

"The William and Mary Honor Councils are to be commended for seeking to sponsor an Open Forum," whereby students and faculty will be enabled to bring their constructive thoughts to bear on the Honor System as it exists today."

According to President Paschall, the following paragraphs from the 1962 brochure will be useful and helpful to one's thinking in anticipation of the future discussions:

The effectiveness of the Honor System rests upon the high sense of inner morality of the student, and the high efficiency of the external control established as a form of self-government by the students and collectively imposed. These operational forces complement each other, and one cannot substitute exclusively for the other.

The fact that the first -- a set of personal ideals or code of conduct -- has traditionally dominated and characterized the operation of the Honor System is, in itself, a tribute to the System, and confirms the individual's challenge to its continued effectiveness in the life of the College. And specifically on the fourth point:

(4) Failure to Report an Offense. The requirement that a student report an infraction of which he has firsthand knowledge is the principle of the Honor Code which is frequently least understood.

Occasionally there is the tendency to feel that this fourth point requires spying or "tattling." This feeling is rooted in the early education and family life of an individual where "tattling" is rightly frowned upon as causing unnecessary alienation. There are two points which should be remembered when comparing the childhood situations with that of the college community.

First, a child looks to adults for authority and discipline, while students at William and Mary govern themselves to a large extent, especially in matters of honor. They cannot continue to be self-governing, however, without cooperation.

Secondly, "tattling," by implication, concerns trivial matters, whereas infractions of the Honor Code threaten the way of life at the College.

While an individual might hesitate to report a parking violation to the authorities, the same individual probably would not hesitate to report a robbery or act of violence, acts which threaten the welfare of the society as a whole.

The people who are concerned that a way of life be maintained must accept responsibility for maintaining it.

There is sometimes a tendency to feel that to report another's breach of honor is to deprive honor of its personal sanctity. For any code of rules or Honor System to be effective, however, there must exist two forms of social control: one is an individual, inner morality resting on religion, education, and public opinion; and the other is an external control, law. Although distinct in their mode of operation, these two forms of control are supplementary.

For the vast majority of students, the Honor Code takes the form of a set of personal ideals or code of conduct. In a group of persons with varied backgrounds and different moral standards, however, there are always some, who for a time at least, must be made to understand that dishonorable conduct has temporal penalties also, one of which is a forced separation from the group whose integrity they have violated.

When students pledge to abide by the Honor code they are indicating publicly their acceptance of the System and their intention to live by certain principles. That anything but rare violations of these principles should occur is inconceivable, for frequent violations would mean that the spirit of honor, and hence the Honor System, did not exist.

That a violation should never occur is equally inconceivable. The students resolve, however, that their ideals shall be maintained, whatever penalties must be imposed to maintain them. Whereupon the Honor System becomes more than a matter of individual morality. It now merges, in essence as a system of external control administered by one's peers as the constituted authority separated from the students themselves.

In this continuing emergence of the System, care is exercised to insure that no violence be done to the spirit of morality. On the contrary, morality is supplemented and reinforced; supplemented for those who lack the depth of inner sanctions of conduct, and reinforced for those whose conduct may be in need of that stimulus, enlargement, and support which come from subject to discipline that is self-imposed.

The Administration of the College wishes to voice openly its continued and wholehearted support of an Honor System which, though not perfect, works commendably well under most circumstances. It wishes to assure all students of its enduring devotion to that highest principle of student conduct yet devised, and of its perpetual and everready desire to support that principle's effective operation in years to come.

It is our conviction that we will never curtail dishonor by curtailing honor, and that we will never strengthen those few who are weak by weakening those many who are strong.

Cut System

This article and the one nearby are printed here because of their importance in the recent political campaign.

--Ashland, Va.--(A. I.)--Student Senate at Randolph-Macon College recently petitioned the faculty to establish an unlimited system of cuts for the following students on this campus:

1. First semester juniors having a cumulative average of 2.0 or better;
2. Second semester juniors having made a 2.0 average or better the preceding semester;
3. First semester seniors having an overall average of 1.5 or better;
4. All graduating second semester seniors not on academic probation.

The above system is to be used at the discretion of the individual professor involved.

COLLEGE EDITORS

(Continued from Page 2)
editors, honorable mention, Old Gold and Black, Wake Forest, The Gamecock, University of South Carolina, The Davidsonian, Davidson, and Old Gold and Black, Wolford.

This was the third year for the Observer-News College Press Awards, and the competition attracted record participation both in the number of college newspapers entered and in the entries by individual writers.

Armour's Soda Shop

Fountain
Toiletries
School Supplies
Cigarettes
Newspapers
Greeting Cards

1331 Ramsey

UNIQUE CLEANERS, INC.

"Let Unique Do It"

Cleaning Laundry Shirts

All Types Sewing

2008 RAMSEY ST.

PHONE - 433-1184

